Instructions for Completing and Submitting the Financial Support Statement

If you need an F-1 student visa to study in the United States, the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay is required by Federal regulations to verify that you have sufficient funds available for your tuition, fees, and living expenses for one academic year of study.

In order to demonstrate that you will be able to afford the costs of living in the U.S. and attending university, you must complete a Financial Support Statement and provide adequate documentation to substantiate your statement. You may submit a combination of the required documents below to demonstrate the full amount of financial support.

Required Documentation

- Self-supported: An official letter from your bank or a combination of official bank letters which meet or exceed the total estimated cost of one academic year of study. The name on the bank account must match the student name.
- Sponsored: An official letter from your bank or a combination of official bank letters which meet or exceed the total estimated cost of one academic year of study. The name on the bank account must match the sponsor name.
- Government/Private Scholarships: An official scholarship award letter stating the student's full name, scholarship amount, and the dates for which the scholarship is valid. The total award must meet or exceed the total estimated cost of one academic year of study.
- Athletic Scholarship: The student athlete's official NCAA certification of eligibility and an official athletics Grant-In-Aid (GIA) document must be submitted. Athletics scholarships do not cover the entire cost of attendance. Please submit additional documentation of financial support.

Please submit your Financial Support Statement and accompanying documentation via email to uwgb@uwgb.edu
