

Cofrin Student Research Symposium 2010

Thursday, February 25, 1:00 – 4:00

1965 Room, University Union

University of Wisconsin-Green Bay

- 1:00                      Introductory Remarks – Bob Howe
- 1:10
Santiago Ocariz              Comparison of canopy and sub canopy arthropod communities on the Cofrin Arboretum
- 1:35
Pao Vue                      Snake species richness, abundance, and distribution on the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay Campus and Cofrin Arboretum
- 2:00
Adam Snippen              The fungus among us: a snapshot of Mahon Woods' hidden Kingdom
KyMBERly Ra Draeger
- 2:25                      Presentation of Sager Scholarship Award (Kari Petrashek)
- 2:30
Jacqueline Krall              Temporal and spatial patterns of seed production by woody species in the Cofrin Arboretum forest dynamics plot
- 3:00
Eric Struck                      Bioassessment of Mahon Creek using macroinvertebrate and fish communities
- 3:25
Josh Martinez              The effect of herbivory by White-tailed deer on native forbs planted in a matrix of native grasses in urban parks