University of Wisconsin-Green Bay Estimate of International Student Expenses

The University of Wisconsin-Green Bay requires certification of adequate financial support from all students with non-immigrant visas. The following figures provide an estimate of the minimum expenses for an international student who will live and dine on campus for the school year. All amounts are given in US dollars:

Fall 2018 – Spring 2019
Tuition and Fees (approximately)	$15,730 OR $17,130
Housing*	4,240
Meals	3,000
Books and Supplies	800
Personal Expenses	3,200
Health Insurance	1,430
Total	$28,400 OR $29,800

* The housing rate is for a 4-student, 2-bedroom apartment-style housing for fall and spring semesters.

 Health Insurance is required for all international students.

You must indicate how you plan to meet your expenses for your studies at UW-Green Bay by completing and submitting the Financial Support Statement and attaching a bank statement(s) on bank letterhead. The bank statement(s) must indicate an exact amount of readily available funds to support the prospective student named on the Financial Support Statement. A statement is required for each sponsor and/or from the student if they are self-supporting.

NOTE: All fees are subject to change without notice.
