Graduation and Retention Rates - "Student Right-to-Know"

Since July 1, 2000, all colleges and universities whose students use any federally-funded financial aid must inform current and prospective students and their parents about the school's graduation rates. These graduation rates are calculated for groups of new full-time fall freshmen, who are tracked for a minimum of six years. If you would like to get a printed copy of UW-Green Bay's graduation rates, please contact the Office of Institutional Research at (920)465-2374 or via e-mail at furlongd@uwgb.edu.

Some Facts About the Learning Environment at UW-Green Bay

Students complete an array of lectures, labs and discussion sections, and independent learning activities (such as internships and individual research projects).

In a typical fall semester, students can choose from approximately 650 lecture courses and 100 labs or discussions.

Faculty and academic staff teach all lectures and most labs.

Approximately 5% of all credit is earned through independent activities.

Very few undergraduate lecture courses contain more than 75 students. Over a quarter are very small, with under 20 students. The most typical class contains between 20 and 40 students, with the median class containing 28 students.

UW-Green Bay's student-faculty ratio is 24-to-1.

*Data on the fact sheet come from enrollments after ten days of fall classes. See the Section for more information about which students are included in this summary.
