Communication Department Announces 2014 Scholarship Winners

The Communication faculty has awarded $15,600 in scholarships to deserving Communication students. The grants were announced at a reception on April 24th. Generous donors and former students have contributed to the scholarship funds citing the value of the Communication department's approach to education. The scholarship dollar amount has increased by more than $1,000 over last year's total. Students who apply for scholarships are considered based on GPA, essays and departmental contributions.

Students and faculty attended the reception to support scholarship recipients and honor senior Communication students. Professor Adolfo Garcia announced the following scholarship recipients at the event:
