

Name: _____ Program Term/Year: _____

UWGB email: _____ UWGB ID: _____

Class level (i.e. Junior): _____ Program Cost: _____ GPA: _____

Study Abroad Program Name: _____

Scholarship Description

John and Lucy Arendt are proud UW-Green Bay alumni, employees, and advocates. Both John and Lucy earned their bachelor's degrees and master's degrees at UW-Green Bay— John in 1988 and 2012 and Lucy in 1987 and 1990. Lucy served as the Associate Dean of the College of Professional Studies and the Director of the Austin E. Cofrin School of Business until 2015, while John is currently the Director of the Environmental Management and Business Institute. They established this scholarship to encourage students to enhance their education at UW-Green Bay through a faculty-led, short-term travel abroad experience.

AWARD OF $500 for a winter/summer faculty-led travel course (two awards per year)

Eligibility and Requirements

- Must be enrolled as a full-time undergraduate student in good standing at UW-Green Bay
- Must be participating in a UW-Green Bay sponsored short-term, faculty-led travel course
- Completed short answer questions (below)
- Finalists will complete a short interview with the selection committee
- Please submit application form and essay by EMAIL to oie@uwgb.edu by the deadline

Short Answer Questions

Answer the questions below in 1-2 page typed document. Please include your name and email address on each page.

- Why do you want to go abroad and why did you choose this program?
- Have you been abroad before? If so, describe your previous experiences.
- How are you planning to fund your study abroad program? What are obstacles to this?
- Tell the scholarship committee something you want them to know about yourself.
- What is one challenge that you face in either choosing or participating in a study abroad program?

Deadlines for submission is OCTOBER 1st (Winter)/ MARCH 1st (spring). Interviews will be set after this date.

Questions? Please contact the Office of International Education at oie@uwgb.edu or 920-465-2190