

Specific program and fee information for the Division of Outreach and Adult Access

Adult Degree Programs -- <http://www.uwgb.edu/adultdegrees/>

The University of Wisconsin-Green Bay Bachelor of Arts Degree in Interdisciplinary Studies is a fully accredited degree program using nontraditional course delivery methods to accommodate the needs of the returning adult student whose lifestyle or circumstance prevents attendance at traditional on-campus courses. Employment, family, or community obligations need not keep adults from completing their university degrees.

College Credit in High School -- <http://www.uwgb.edu/ccihhs/>

The College Credit in High School program at UW-Green Bay offers credit courses within high schools, providing opportunities for academically qualified high school students to engage in a special college-level learning experience. Taught by qualified and approved high school faculty, students pursue rigorous advanced subjects, earning credit upon successful completion

Emergency Management -- <http://www.uwgb.edu/em/>

The courses offered in the Emergency Management, Planning, and Administration program are designed for those already in the profession, as well as for those pursuing a career in the field.

Entrepreneur and Business Training -- <http://www.uwgb.edu/sbdc/>

We offer a full range of business seminars and workshops for both established businesses and start-up companies.

Local Government Education -- <http://www.uwgb.edu/outreach/govt/>

UW-Green Bay's Local Government Education Outreach has a rich tradition of supporting local government statewide through a wide range of practical continuing education programs for officials and employees. These programs provide the skills and competencies required to effectively serve in government.
