Left handed percussionists may play the opposite stickings; thus performing left hand lead. Sticking Policy may be thought of as strong hand lead. Parenthetical stickings may be preferred for musical reasons, depending upon the tempo.