

Open Call for Artworks by Native Artists

The Lawton Gallery at the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay is seeking submissions for an exhibition to take place in the Fall 2010

Amii John (Cherokee) and Dr. Stephen Perkins (Director, Lawton Gallery) are seeking work from artists living in the USA & Canada that:

- Deals with today's issues
- Uses traditional or non-traditional materials to highlight the concerns of contemporary Native artists
- Pushes the boundaries of what is considered stereotypical Native American art

We are seeking submissions in all media, including written text. Text works need to be in published form (book, chapbook, zine etc...) and accompanied with an SASE (see below). All ages and skill levels are welcome.

Deadline for submissions: August 1st, 2009

Submissions are requested in digital format (include sizes & dimensions of your work). Please send to Amii John at: johnal33@uwgb.edu.

If you are unable to send digital submissions please send alternative submissions materials to:

Amii John
c/o Lawton Gallery
University of Wisconsin-Green Bay
2420 Nicolet Drive
Green Bay, WI 54311

[please do not send original works]

Non-digital submissions must be accompanied by an SASE (stamped & addressed envelope) for return of materials. For further information please feel free to contact Amii John at: 920-869-1484 between 8am – 2pm.

For further information about the Lawton gallery & its programming please go to the gallery's website at: www.uwgb.edu/lawton