This brochure is designed to provide University of Wisconsin-Green Bay traditional and non-traditional students with information about some of the honors opportunities available to them.

For information about additional opportunities, including scholarships, fellowships, and merit awards, contact the Financial Aid Office at 920-465-2075 or the program adviser in your area of interest.

Additional information about Degree Honors and Honors in the Major can be obtained from the UW-Green Bay Undergraduate Catalog at www.uwgb.edu/catalog/undrgrad/ARR.htm.

February 2012
Alpha Sigma Lambda
(Gamma Beta Phi Chapter)
The Purpose of Alpha Sigma Lambda is to recognize the special achievements of non-traditional students who accomplish academic excellence while facing competing interests of home and work. Alpha Sigma Lambda also inspires its candidates to give of their strengths to their fellow students and communities through their academic achievements. Invitations to membership are extended annually to UW-Green Bay students who meet the non-traditional student criteria as outlined in the Chapter constitution. The criteria states eligible students must have completed at least 24 graded semester hours at UWGB; in which at least 12 of those credits are in Liberal Arts/Sciences; rank in the top 20% of class who have achieved at least a 3.2 GPA; are age 25-years or older or a student in the Adult Degree Program; and, are pursuing their first baccalaureate degree.

Contact: Lynn Brandt, Academic Advisor, Adult Degree Program, 920-465-2741 or brandtl@uwgb.edu.

Beta Beta Beta
The purpose of Beta Beta Beta (Tribeta) is to recognize excellence in the biological sciences and undergraduate research. Tribeta has annual district and national conventions at which students present research. Students who meet certain standards and have a strong background in the biological sciences (Biology, Human Biology, Nutritional Sciences and Environmental Sciences) can be members. Students with other majors in the sciences are eligible for associate membership.

Contact: Dr. Brian Merkel, Associate Professor, Human Biology, 920-465-2262 or merkelb@uwgb.edu.

Phi Alpha Theta
The purpose of Phi Alpha Theta is to promote the study of history through the encouragement of research, good teaching, publication, and the exchange of learning and thought among historians. Phi Alpha Theta seeks to bring students, teachers, and writers of history together both intellectually and socially. It encourages and assists historical research and publication by its members. Students who have completed a minimum of 12 upper level (300+) History credits and have at least a 3.5 GPA in their History courses are eligible for membership. Eligible students will receive an invitation to become a member, from the Phi Alpha Theta adviser during the spring semester.

Contact: Dr. David Voelker, Associate Professor, Humanistic Studies (History), 920-465-2491 or voelkerd@uwgb.edu.

Phi Eta Sigma
The purpose of Phi Eta Sigma is to encourage and reward high scholastic achievement among first-year students in institutions of higher learning through membership in a National Honor Society. Members are eligible for grants and scholarships based on academic record and extra-curricular service activities. Requirements: 3.5 GPA in first or second semester of freshman year. Invitations to become a member are sent annually to those who qualify.

Contact: Dr. Donna Ritch, Associate Dean, College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, 920-465-2336 or ritchd@uwgb.edu. Visit us at http://www.uwgb.edu/phietasigma/.

Phi Kappa Phi
The purpose of Phi Kappa Phi is to recognize and encourage superior scholarship in all academic disciplines. Invitations to become a member are sent annually to the most academically outstanding juniors and seniors who qualify in each major.

Contact: Dr. Donna Ritch, Associate Dean, College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, 920-465-2336 or ritchd@uwgb.edu. Visit us at http://www.uwgb.edu/phikappaphi/.

Psi Chi
The purpose of Psi Chi, the International Honor Society in Psychology founded in 1929, is to encourage, stimulate and maintain excellence in scholarship, and advance the science of psychology. Invitations to become a member are sent annually to outstanding junior and senior Psychology and Human Development majors.

Contact: Dr. Regan A. R. Gurung, Professor, Psychology and Human Development, 920-465-5679 or gurungr@uwgb.edu. Visit us at http://www.uwgb.edu/psychology/psichi/.

Sigma Beta Delta
The purpose of Sigma Beta Delta is to encourage and reward scholarship and accomplishment among students of business, management, and administration; and to encourage and promote aspirations toward personal and professional improvement and a life distinguished by honorable service to humankind. Every Spring, invitations for induction into the national society are sent to outstanding junior and senior Business Administration and Accounting majors, and to Masters of Management graduate students.

Contact: Dr. Lucy Arendt, Associate Professor, Management, 920-465-2817 or arendtl@uwgb.edu.