The media coverage of Africa’s Ebola epidemic has exploded since the disease crossed American borders. Get solid facts from reliable sources by using this guide. This would be a great resource for classes that are currently looking at the Ebola outbreaks and the media’s coverage of it. Check it out here: http://libguides.uwgb.edu/ebola

Staff Profile:
In each newsletter, we will profile library staff members. This month, it’s:

Deb Anderson, Archives and Area Research Center Coordinator.

When did you start at UWGB? I began at UW Green Bay in August 1989.

College degree & subject area: Master of Arts in History and Master of Library and Information Studies, specializing in archives administration.

Explain at little bit about what you do at Cofrin Library: I coordinate the University Archives and Area Research Center. I love the opportunities given to me in this role to help people use original research materials. We help everyone from scholars to Cub Scouts; from genealogists to UWGB classes; from ghost hunters to playwrights. Every day I am able to indulge my inner history geek and handle things like Civil War diaries, the original campus plan, and WWII family letters.

Hobbies: Cooking and baking; travel; attending plays; board games; reading; and hanging out with friends and family.

Top 5 Favorite Books: Unbroken by Laura Hillenbrand; 7: An Experimental Mutiny Against Excess by Jen Hatmaker; anything by children’s author Patricia Polacco; Red Bird Christmas by Fannie Flagg; Yada Yada Prayer Group Series by Neta Jackson.

Top 5 Favorite Movies: Wizard of Oz; Finding Nemo; Fiddler on the Roof; Yours, Mine, and Ours; Rear Window.

Name a favorite place that you have visited? / Where is somewhere you haven’t been but would love to go to?

When I was a little girl, my family took a camping trip to South Dakota and saw all the traditional highlights of the Black Hills, Mount Rushmore, Badlands, and Wall Drug. We recently re-created that same trip, in the same camper, with my son. I would like to explore the national parks in the western United States and explore the east coast to soak up history.

Favorite Local Restaurant: Grapevine.

What is your first clear memory of visiting an archives?

I didn’t know the word archives when I was growing up. I can remember going to museums though on all of our family vacations. I was intrigued by all of the history and the stories my dad told about what we were seeing. The first time I saw a true archives was in college. I couldn’t wait to open all of the boxes and discover history first hand. I felt like I had been missing out on this great treasure of “historical stuff.”

THIS or THAT? Pick ONE for each below:

- Scrabble or LIFE? Scrabble
- Spring or Fall? Both....but winter is even better!
- Mashed potatoes or French fries? Sweet potato fries
- California or Florida? Florida. Mostly though I would rather it be mountains or forests.
- Morning or Night? Night
- Beer or Wine? Milk and cookies! 😊
- Penguin or Kangaroo? Penguin. My Christmas tree has a whole series of penguin ornaments. I didn’t even realize how many I had acquired until I was asked if I was collecting penguin ornaments. I just thought they were cute!
• Star Wars movies or Harry Potter movies? Neither really. Give me a great mystery or musical instead.
• Facebook or Twitter? Facebook. But, I also love to send and receive the old-fashioned handwritten letter and card.

What do you like best about UWGB?
I really enjoy all of the people I am able to meet, collaborate with, and help. The beautiful setting of the campus is wonderful during all the seasons.
