

What resources and support are available to me?

The Green Bay Area Research Center, host of the Northeastern Wisconsin regional competition, is available to help teachers, students, and parents every step of the way!

They offer:

- Presentations to schools, classrooms, or clubs about National History Day
- Helping students narrow their topics
- Presentations regarding primary research and conducting oral history interviews
- Identification of relevant original source materials for NHD projects
- Class or individual research visits to the Green Bay Area Research Center
- Borrowing of original source materials from the Wisconsin Historical Society and other Area Research Centers for student use at the Green Bay Area Research Center

The Green Bay Area Research Center is the official repository for the Wisconsin Historical Society's collections of manuscripts and public records from 11 northeastern Wisconsin counties!