UW-Green Bay Campus – Wood Hall 213 and 214

Online course instruction occurring in-between face-to-face class times.
30 hours of instruction. Computer and Internet access throughout duration of course required.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOK: Jarvis, Ana. (2006). Basic Spanish Grammar. Houghton Mifflin.

Responsibilities of the learner: Because of the nature of this course, you must commit yourself to work independently and fulfill the duties set forth in this class including the completion of all assigned work in addition to attending and participating in all on-site meetings (5 total). While working individually you must maintain periodic communication with your instructor, who will monitor your progress and give you frequent feedback. You must send your instructor the completed homework by the deadlines indicated in this syllabus. Communicate to your instructor any questions, comments or concerns about this class.

Preparation: Learning a foreign language requires perseverance and practice. To successfully accomplish the goals set forth in this course, you must set aside a block of time where you will be able to study with no interruptions for a minimum of four hours per week. Read the syllabus and complete all the assigned work, practice listening and comprehension skills with the audio materials and submit your written work to the instructor in a timely fashion for feedback. In addition to your individual work, you will participate in three group sessions on the dates listed in this syllabus where you will review grammar points and practice conversational skills.

Instructors' Responsibilities: Your instructor will communicate with you frequently via e-mail about your progress in the class. In addition, the instructor will address in person during the on-site teaching sessions any questions or concerns you might have.
