Guidance for aspiring or new leaders and pragmatic recommendations for leaders who seek to develop strong teams and drive outstanding results.

Supervisory Leadership 101 offers guidance for aspiring or new leaders and pragmatic recommendations for leaders who seek to develop strong teams and drive outstanding results. Explore different leadership styles and discover your own unique style. Understand the transition into leadership and how your role and responsibilities are defined.

Leadership is a conscious choice. Gain the tools and approaches necessary for professionals at all stages of the leadership life cycle to understand your role, establish fundamental practices, integrate your actions with the organization's strategy and motivate and inspire your teams.

Increase your value to your company — grow professionally and personally.

Who Should Attend

- Small business owners
- Team leaders
- Supervisors
- Managers

Our workshops are designed for people who supervise others. The concepts and skills taught are also relevant to all who work with people in a team environment.

Whether you own your own business, or work in an office, at an agency, in a health care facility, or manufacturing plant, you will find the workshops applicable in your environment.

The Supervisory Aspect of Management

- Moving from an operational to a decision-making role
- Making the transition smoother and less stressful

Understanding Your Leadership Style

- Determine one's own preferences based on the DiSC™ self-assessment (done online prior to session)
- Connect the DiSC™ preferences to your leadership behaviors and practices

Building a Culture of Trust

- Explore the value and importance of trust in the workplace
- Implement trust building actions into your leadership practices
