Seeking Applications for the Anne C. Kok Scholarship in Social Work/Social Justice

History

Professor Anne Kok was the director of the Social Work Professional Programs at UW-Green Bay when she was tragically killed in an automobile accident in 2008. Memorial gifts from Anne's family and several hundred friends, former students and colleagues established this scholarship.

The UWGB Social Work Department will award one $1,000 scholarship for the 2012-2013 academic year. One-half of the scholarship will be applied to fall semester tuition and fees while the second payment will be applied to spring semester tuition and fees provided the minimum cumulative G.P.A. meets the university's established requirements.

Scholarship Selection Criteria

- a. Enrolled as a full-time undergraduate student with at least two semesters of coursework completed at UW-Green Bay and pursuing an academic-sponsored international learning experience (e.g., study abroad, student exchange, international certificate program, etc.)
OR
Enrolled or seeking enrollment at UW-Green Bay as an exchange student from the University of Jordan to earn credit for classes in the social work major;
- b. Applicants must complete the scholarship application that documents their interest in social change and/or social justice field.
- c. Minimum cumulative earned undergraduate grade point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale (or equivalent); and
- d. Pursuing a major in social work or in a related social justice field.
- e. Consideration shall be given to social work/social justice applicants (when qualified) with limited or no travel experience, either within their home country and/or abroad (as detailed in the written application).

Questions about the scholarship can be directed to the chair of the Social Work Program (Dr. Jolanda Sallmann, sallmanj@uwgb.edu or 920-465-2029).

Deadline for applying for the 2012-2013 academic year is March 20, 2012.
