1. The minutes of March 8, 2005 were approved with corrections.
2. The primary focus of our meeting was a discussion of how to move the course scheduling proposal forward. We agreed that it is imperative that we have a simulation available to show how the proposed schedule fits in with our current schedule. In addition, we will ask Mike Herrity to run a simulation that creates all-University hours with our current course scheduling. The CCC affirmed that the primary focus of the course scheduling proposal is to free up time for all-University hours—a priority time to meet and get together. As a first step in communicating the proposed course schedules, CCC members will engage in informal discussions with faculty and staff.
3. The issue of representation of an Academic Staff member on the Chancellor's cabinet was brought up. Concerns were addressed to Provost Hammersmith, who agreed to a follow up.
4. Although the minutes are brief, the meeting was not. We adjourned at 2:00 pm.

Submitted with respect, communicative intent, and trust,

Illene Noppe, Chair
