

15th Annual Fall Conference
Oct. 17-18, 2013

INSTITUTE FOR Learning
Partnership

UNIVERSITY of WISCONSIN
GREEN BAY

We are More Alike than Different: STRATEGIES FOR LEADERSHIP AND SUCCESS

Register  online www.uwgb.edu/learnpart

Keynote Topic: 'Learning How to Use Humor to Enhance Leadership, Communities and Student Success'

About the Keynote Speaker

Peter Jonas, Ph.D., is a professor and chair of the Doctoral Leadership Department at Cardinal Stritch University, Milwaukee, Wis. He has served as an organizational/educational consultant for businesses and school districts. In addition to providing professional development in a variety of areas (e.g., leadership, research, teaching, technology, humor), he has served as a program evaluator and completed strategic planning processes for more than 20 school districts. He has also worked with non-profit organizations and businesses. He has authored several books and articles in his various fields.

no cost to attend
FREE

University of Wisconsin-Green Bay
2420 Nicolet Drive
Green Bay, WI 54311-7001

We are More Alike than Different: STRATEGIES FOR LEADERSHIP AND SUCCESS

15th Annual Fall Conference - October 17-18, 2013

The following events take place in the University Union, UW-Green Bay campus.

Evening of Thursday, October 17	4:45 - 5:30 p.m.	Registration
	5:00 - 5:45 p.m.	Breakout Sessions
	6:00 - 6:45 p.m.	Breakout Sessions (Repeat)
	6:00 - 7:30 p.m.	Educators' Showcase, Refreshments and Entertainment
	7:30 - 8:30 p.m.	'Cultural Commonalities' Panel Discussion
Morning of Friday, October 18	7:30 - 8:00 a.m.	Registration and coffee
	Keynote address 8:00 - 9:30 a.m.	'Learning How to Use Humor to Enhance Leadership, Communities and Student Success' by Prof. Peter Jonas, Ph.D.
	9:45 a.m. - 12 noon	'Eight Strategies Demonstrating How to Integrate Humor into Leadership, Learning and Student Success' by Prof. Peter Jonas, Ph.D.
	Breakout sessions by Prof. Jonas and two local experts	'RTI - Responsive Instruction for All Students: Aligning the Will, the Fill and the Skill to Enhance Teacher Effectiveness and Student Learning' by Andreal Davis
		'A Call to Action: How to Provide Inspiration, Encouragement & Guidance to our Children and Families Who Need Us the Most' by Laurice Snyder

Register online:
www.uwgb.edu/learnpart

Free — no cost to attend!

Registration: Sept 2 - Oct 11

For more information contact Juliet Cole of the Institute for Learning Partnership at (920) 465-5094 or colej@uwgb.edu.

Who should attend?

- educators
- administrators
- business professionals
- human services personnel
- community members

Thursday evening breakout topics

The conference will offer the following breakout sessions led by local experts to help those in the educational, non-profit, human services, and business fields and those who serve diverse populations.

- Hispanic – Prof. Aurora Cortes de Fulton
- African American – TBD
- Hmong – Prof. Pao Lor
- Native American – TBD
- Poverty – Helen Schaal
- Somali – Hamida Ismael
- LGBTQ – Kathleen Leadley
- Multicultural youth - Dan Terrio and multicultural student group

Breakout session presenters will serve on the panel discussion to highlight two important takeaways from their respective cultural presentations and facilitate a discussion on cultural commonalities.

Details online at www.uwgb.edu/learnpart

Friday morning

Prof. Peter Jonas, Ph.D., will lead the discussion to help spark leaders, community members and educators to take action based on accurate understanding of the community needs across a variety of sectors.

