

Title: What the Heck Happened to Our Biodiversity?

School: West DePere High School

When we began this project we knew Ashwaubenon Creek had problems, and as we collected data on it, those issues began to become very clear. Frogs are classic environmental indicators, and indeed our survey of their populations yielded poor results. Summer's macro survey was also disappointing. Therefore we have decided to focus our research and remediation plan around the creek's biodiversity.