Increase your value to your company — grow professionally and personally.

An overview of leadership basics, the required seminars address challenges you face as you make the transition from independent contributor to manager. Supervisory Leadership I and II are the foundation for our specialized seminars and are required for certification.

You may register for any Supervisory Leadership seminar without completing the Certificate requirements.

Who Should Attend
- Small business owners
- Team leaders
- Supervisors
- Managers

Our workshops are designed for people who supervise others. The concepts and skills taught are also relevant to all who work with people in a team environment.

Whether you own your own business, or work in an office, at an agency, in a health care facility, or manufacturing plant, you will find the seminars applicable in your environment.

Seminar Fee
$425/person/seminar. Fee includes instruction, materials, lunch and refreshment breaks. Make checks payable to UW-Green Bay.

Discounts Available
Register for both sessions for the discount rate of $375/person/seminar. Registrations must be received together to qualify for discounts.
