Peer Observation of Non-Lecture Based Courses

| Name:  | Reviewer:  |
|--|--|
| Course:  | Date:  |
| Describe the setting or context for toda studio, music performance, discussion-  | ckground Information ay's class. Non-lecture courses vary widely: art -based literature courses, clinical and field acteristics that would provide appropriate |
| Describe your understanding of the ins   | 1: Instructor Goals/Intentions structor's goals for today, focusing on whether d, and b) connected to the flow of previous or                                  |
| Provide evidence that the instructor org could be appropriately engaged. Descroccurred a) over a substantial portion of segment of students attending the class Examples of engagement formats : des | signing a project, creating an artifact, nt with instructor/fellow students, writing on bserving a demonstration,  |
| Comments   |  |

Observation Area 3: Teacher/Student Interactions

Examples of what to look for: respectful treatment of students; positive rapport between teacher and students; genuine teacher enthusiasm in content delivery; etc.

| nments       |                |                  |                  |             |  |
|--------------|----------------|------------------|------------------|-------------|--|
|              |                |                  |                  |             |  |
| Additional C | omments on Oth | ner Facets of No | on-Lecture Based | d Teaching: |  |
|              |                |                  |                  |             |  |
|              |                |                  |                  |             |  |
|              |                |                  |                  |             |  |