

Music | 2014-2015 Assessment Plan

1. Which outcome will you assess?
 - Learning Outcomes: All Degrees and Emphases
 - Demonstrate growth in musical expression, technical skills, and knowledge of repertory on major instrument in solo setting.
 - Demonstrate growth in musical expression and technical skills on major instrument in large and small ensemble settings.
 - Apply knowledge of music theory in academic contexts.
 - Apply knowledge of music theory in performance settings.
 - Apply knowledge of music history in academic contexts.
 - Apply knowledge of music history in performance settings.
 - Demonstrate analytical and problem-solving skills relevant to life-long musical learning.
 - Demonstrate ability to identify, hear, and sing the elements of music.
 - Demonstrate ability to read, write, and realize musical notation.
 - Demonstrate appropriate competency at the keyboard.
 - Learning Outcomes: Music Education Emphases Only
 - Demonstrate appropriate pedagogical skills for music classroom instruction.
 - Demonstrate appropriate musical leadership through rehearsal and conducting skills.
 - Demonstrate knowledge of relevant music methods for classroom instruction.
2. Which technique will you use to assess this outcome?
 - Music Unit Assessment Methods