Audit Enrollment
If enrollment capacities permit, a special student may audit a course if space is available after students enrolled for credit are accommodated. Special policies apply to reduced-fee auditors and disabled guest students. Students must have instructor approval to take an audit only course using the Audit Permission registration/reduced fee form. If a degree seeking student wishes to audit a course, they request this option using the Change Grading Status request form. Click here (www.uwgb.edu/registrar/forms/index.asp) to access these forms.

Credit
A quantitative unit used to measure effort devoted to reading, discussion, lecture, and other activities associated with the learning process. In theory, earning one credit requires a minimum of 15 hours of classroom time and an additional 30 hours of out-of-classroom effort. An average student carrying a 15-credit semester load should expect to commit at least 45 hours per week to class attendance, study, and preparation.

Credit Load
The total credits a student is carrying as a program at a given time in a term, for example, at registration or at the end of the semester. All credits, regardless of grading status, count toward credit load for certain purposes.

Maximum Credit Load
A student in good standing may register for a maximum of 18 credits during any regular session of fall or spring semester and may register for a maximum of three credits in the January Interim session. A student who wants to enroll in more than 18 credits in a regular session must obtain written approval in advance from their faculty or academic advisor, using the credit overload petition before the first day of classes.
Once approved, course(s) enrollment can be completed. Additional tuition and fees will apply.

Minimum Credit Load
A specific minimum number of credits (excluding audit credits) that a student must carry to be eligible for certain programs and benefits. A student may register for or reduce a program below 12 credits in a semester with the understanding that for certain purposes he or she will be considered a part-time student. A student who reduces the credit load below 12 credits should check with the appropriate offices about the effect on financial aid, government benefits, athletic eligibility, health insurance coverage, and other programs with credit load eligibility limits.

Attempted or Grade Point Credits
The number of credits completed for a grade that will affect the grade point average. Some completed credits may not count toward degree credits. Some attempted credits may be considered for grade point calculations.

Degree Credits
Those credits that count toward the 120 credits required for a bachelor’s degree. Academic support courses do not result in degree credits even though they may have a credit value assigned for measuring credit load for some purposes.

Completed Credits
The number of credits (excluding audit credits) for which a final grade is received. Pass-no credit credits passed, degree credits, and attempted credits are included. Temporary grades of I or N are excluded.

Audited Credits
Credits for courses in which a student chooses to enroll as an auditor. These credits are counted for maximum credit load and fee assessment for degree seeking students, but they are of no significance for any other purposes, such as graduation or grade point average. Enrollment as an auditor is subject to special conditions.

P-NC Credits
Pass-no credit is a specific grading option. These credits have no effect on grade point average, but, if passed, may add to the degree credits earned. Students use the Change Grading Basis form to elect P-NC grading.

Grade Point Average (gpa)
A numerical value derived from dividing the number of grade points earned by the number of credits attempted on a regular grade basis. P-NC, incomplete, grades removed by repeat and audit grades and transfer credits have no effect on grade point average. Only those courses attempted at UW-Green Bay are included in a student's grade point average. However, transfer grades may be used to compute eligibility for admission to certain majors.

Cumulative Grade Point Average
Grade point average for all completed terms at UW-Green Bay. It is calculated by dividing the cumulative total grade points earned by the cumulative total grade point credits earned. Attempted courses where an F grade is received are also included in grade point calculations unless successfully repeated.

Probation
An advisory warning status assigned to a student who shows lack of academic progress as measured by grade point average. Probation is an advisory warning that improved performance is necessary to continue as a student.

Academic Suspension
A status assigned when a student’s record of academic progress and/or achievement is unacceptable. Suspended students are not permitted to continue to enroll at the University.

Good Standing
A status assigned when a student is making adequate academic progress and his or her cumulative grade point average is 2.0 or better.

Academic Forgiveness
Returning students, who have not earned a baccalaureate degree, and have not enrolled in any courses at UW-Green Bay for a minimum of three consecutive years prior to readmission are eligible to request academic forgiveness. If “academic forgiveness” is granted, all grades received from courses taken three or more years before readmission will be excluded when calculating the student’s cumulative grade point average. Requests can be made through the Office of Academic Advising but must be made within 21 calendar days after the last day of final exams of the first semester after readmission.

Academic Standing
All students are expected to maintain certain standards of academic achievement while enrolled at the University. The University is concerned about students whose academic achievements indicate that they are not meeting the expectations of their instructors, or who are experiencing other problems that may be interfering with their studies. An academic warning is an advisory notice that a student should take action to improve his or her performance. Probation and strict probation are formal academic actions that document unacceptable performance on the student’s official transcript. An academic suspension action is taken when a student’s achievement record indicates a need to interrupt enrolled status. Official academic actions on part-time students are withheld until they have attempted at least 12 credits at UW-Green Bay.

Good Academic Standing
A student is in good academic standing if the student’s cumulative resident grade point average is 2.00 or greater. Academic standing is reviewed at the end of each academic term. Every student is expected to maintain at least a 2.00 grade point average on all work carried in every term, including summer session. Students who fail to maintain this minimum grade point average will face academic warning, probation, strict probation, or suspension, as specified.

Academic Probation
A student in good standing will be placed on academic probation if he/she earns a cumulative grade point average of less than 2.00 but greater than 1.00. Academic probation is an advisory warning and is not subject to appeal.

Strict Probation
A student will be allowed no more than two consecutive academic terms to remove him/herself from probation. If a student is on probation and earns a cumulative grade point average of less than 2.00 at the end of the probationary term, he/she will be placed on strict probation. A student on strict probation must regain good academic standing by the end of the strict probationary term in order to continue at the University.

Return to Good Standing
A student on probation or strict probation will be cleared of probation at the end of any term in which a cumulative grade point average of 2.00 or better is attained.

Academic Suspension
A student will be suspended from the University if he/she fails to achieve a cumulative grade point average of 2.00 at the end of a semester on strict probation or if his/her cumulative grade point average falls below 1.00.

Appeals Process
Academic suspension status may be appealed to the provost’s designee. Appeals must be filed within the deadline specified in the official suspension notification. The action of the provost’s designee may be appealed to the Academic Actions Committee within the deadline specified in the official suspension notification. The decision of the Academic Actions Committee is final. A student who is allowed to continue as a result of an appeal will be placed on suspension waiver, and is subject to any special conditions that may be designated. An academic suspension provides time for a student to give careful thought to the circumstances that resulted in the suspension action. Suspension appeals must include a clear explanation of the circumstances that resulted in inadequate achievement, and a statement explaining how the student proposes to resolve those circumstances.

Students planning to appeal should consider:

- Are the relevant facts and dates clearly stated and documented?
- Are the extenuating circumstances cited of an unforeseeable nature?
- Are relevant recommendations from instructors included, if appropriate?
Readmission Following Academic Suspension

Students who have been suspended may appeal for continued enrollment (see Appeals Process). For students who do not appeal for continued enrollment, or for whom the appeal is denied, the period of the first suspension shall be one regular semester. A student seeking readmission to the University after the expiration of the suspension must make formal application through the Admissions Office. Readmittance cannot be guaranteed. A written request for readmission must accompany formal re-application to the University. A student who is readmitted after suspension will be placed on suspension waiver. If a student is readmitted and fails to regain good academic standing after readmittance, a second suspension will be incurred. The second suspension shall be for a period of two regular semesters.

Class Standing

Class standing is determined by the number of earned credits a student has completed. Class levels are defined as:

Grading System and Grade Points

Grade point averages indicate academic and class standing and are a means of measuring the quality of a student's academic work. Grade point averages are computed on a 4.0 basis. See chart for letter grade point values.

A student who elects to take courses on a pass-no credit basis should be aware of certain restrictions. See the special entry on P-NC grading that appears later in this section.

Since grading standards differ from institution to institution, grades received from other institutions are not used in computing grade point averages. However, transfer grades may be used to compute eligibility for admission to certain programs.

Final Grades
Final grades are posted to the student’s transcript and may be accessed via the Student Information System.

Grades
Each student receives a grade from the instructor of a course at the end of a semester or session. Instructors must forward grades to the Registrar’s Office no later than 96 hours after the final examination or last date of that individual course.

Grade Changes
Missing (N) grades or Incomplete (I) grades must be discussed and submitted for permanent change to the student’s academic record no later than the last day of classes in the following semester.

Grade Appeals
If a student is dissatisfied and wishes to appeal a particular course grade, he or she must first contact the instructor who issued the grade. If the student is still dissatisfied, he or she may appeal further to the department chair. The chairperson, in turn, consults with the course instructor. If a student wishes to appeal further, he or she should contact the appropriate academic dean who will consult with the instructor and the appropriate chairperson.

Pass-No Credit Enrollment
Students may choose the pass-no credit (P-NC) grading option if they do not want a regular grade in a course that would affect their

The decision to take a course on a P-NC basis must be made within the first two weeks of a semester. For courses less than 12 weeks duration, the last date to opt for this grading basis can vary, please consult the Registration calendar (www.uwgb.edu/registrar/calendar/index.asp) on the Registrar's webpage. The P-NC Change Grading Basis request form must be filed in the Office of the Registrar.

Some courses may not be selected on a pass-no credit basis if they are taken to fulfill certain requirements. These include:

- general education courses
- courses used to fulfill English Composition and Writing Emphasis (WE) requirements
- major and minor courses except those offered as P-NC only (includes student teaching, some social work courses, business administration/accounting internship, etc.)
- honors in the major (478) projects
- independent study (298, 498) courses

Electives may be taken on a P-NC basis.

For pass-no credit, grades of A, AB, B, BC, or C, are designated "pass." Grades of CD, D, F or WF are designated as NC or "no credit." An NC does not affect grade point average, nor does it add to earned credits.

Students considering applying for graduate or professional schools or transferring to another undergraduate campus should keep in mind that P-NC grading may have an adverse effect on admission. Graduate and professional schools generally prefer letter grades because such grades enable them to better judge potential for academic success. This grading option is not reversible after enrollment.

Audit Enrollment

Students may choose the audit grading option if they want to learn the material in a course but do not want to earn a letter grade. The decision to take a course on an audit basis must be made within the first two weeks of a semester. For courses less than 12 weeks duration the last date to opt for an audited course can vary, please consult the Registration calendar (www.uwgb.edu/registrar/calendar/index.asp) on the Registrar’s webpage. Degree seeking students use the Change Grading Basis form.

Any student who wishes to audit a course can enroll in any undergraduate courses except independent study, internships, and honors projects, professional courses in Education, Nursing, and Social Work; all Adult Degree and Graduate level courses. This grading option is not reversible after enrollment. Special audit only students use the Audit Permission form.

Incompletes

If a student is unable to take or complete a final examination or other final course work, due to unusual but acceptable circumstances, he or she may arrange with the instructor to receive an incomplete. The instructor files an incomplete grade form and establishes the remaining course requirements due and a deadline for completion. A tentative academic action may be assigned on the basis of grades and credits received in other courses. If a student does not complete the remaining coursework/requirements or fails to meet the deadline an F grade is assigned. Students may not subsequently submit a late drop petition or tuition appeal for an incomplete if they are unable to meet the established criteria/deadline.
Incompletes for Graduating Seniors

Students who complete their coursework in December, January, May or August must have all incompletes removed within 42 days following the end of the classes in each of those timeframes.

Removal of Incompletes

The course instructor sets a specific deadline for removal of an incomplete and informs the student and the Office of the Registrar via submission of the Incomplete Grade form agreement. If no earlier deadline is specified, an incomplete (I) must be removed no later than the last day of classes during the next semester. If the deadline is not met, the (I) Incomplete grade is lapsed to an F grade that will remain on their permanent academic record.

A student may file a special petition for an extension of the incomplete deadline if bona fide unanticipated extenuating circumstances prevented compliance with the deadline. These circumstances might be valid:

- The student has serious physical or mental health problems which are documented by statements from a physician or professional counselor.
- The student has had a death or serious illness in the immediate family and this is documented by a physician’s statement.
- The course instructor is on leave during the semester for removal.

Once an incomplete grade is recorded for a course a student may not, under any circumstances, drop the course.

Repeating Courses for Credit

Courses can be repeated for credit only if they are officially designated as repeatable due to the nature of the course content. Performance courses in music, Studio arts courses or courses designated with differing topics are examples.

Courses that have been repeated for credit are recorded on the student’s transcript with the phrase “Course has been Repeated” after the course listing on the transcript.

Faculty members may not grant individual waivers for students to repeat a course for credit when the course is not already designated as repeatable in the college catalog. Creating a repeatable course can be accomplished via the course/curriculum change processes on an annual basis.

Repeating Courses to Improve a Grade

Courses can also be repeated to improve the grade received. If a course is repeated, the original attempt will still appear on the transcript with the grade earned. However, the grade received after the course is repeated will be used to determine the credit earned, attempted credits, grade points earned, and grade point average both for the term and cumulatively.

If a course is transferred in and then repeated at UWGB, the grade received when taken at UWGB will be used to determine the credits earned, attempted credits, grade points earned, and grade point average both for the term and cumulatively. The original transfer course and grade will no longer count toward degree requirements or total credits earned toward a degree. A course can only count once.
If a course is taken at UWGB, and then repeated at another institution and transferred to UWGB, the credits earned and grade received for the course taken at UWGB is still used to calculate the cumulative GPA, cumulative attempted credits, grade points earned and grade point average. The transfer course grade can, however, be used to satisfy degree or course prerequisite requirements but the credits earned will not count toward the 120 credits required for a degree.

The University does not guarantee the right to retake any course. Courses may be deactivated, discontinued, or offered on a different schedule.

Based on federal regulations which went into effect July 1, 2011, some repeat coursework may be excluded when evaluating a student’s credit load as it relates to federal and/or state financial aid eligibility. If not designated as a repeatable course, students may have aid reduced. In general, for financial aid purposes, students are allowed to repeat a course for which a passing grade was previously received ONE additional time, with financial aid eligibility. Students may repeat the course after that, but those attempts would not be eligible for funding by federal or state financial aid programs.

Class Attendance

A student is expected to attend all class sessions. If, for any reason, a student is unable to attend classes during the first week of the semester, he or she is responsible for notifying the instructor(s), in writing, of the reason for nonattendance and indicate intentions to complete the course. Failure to attend classes during the first week of the semester may result in an administrative drop by the instructor. Registered students are obligated to pay all fees and penalties as listed on the fee schedule. Failure to attend class does not alter academic or financial obligations.

Course Adds and Drops

NOTE: A week is defined as 7 calendar days, beginning on the first day of a term or session, for the purposes of adds, drops or withdrawal deadlines.

 Tuition refunds and/or withdrawal fees vary by length of course and date of transaction. Please consult the Fee deadlines (www.uwgb.edu/bursar/feeinformation/index.htm) for the appropriate semester on the Bursar website for more details. Be aware financial deadlines are different from academic deadlines.

Course Adds

Once enrolled, students may add other courses to their programs if such additions do not exceed the maximum credit load limitation and if additions are completed before a specific deadline. During a normal 14-week semester the add period is limited to the first two weeks of classes. For classes scheduled 12 weeks or less in duration, the add deadline varies and is noted on the Registration Calendar (www.uwgb.edu/registrar/calendar/index.asp) on the Registrar webpage. A student may use a late add permission form to add a regular semester course up through the end of the ninth week of the semester. Courses less than 12 weeks in duration have shorter add/late add deadlines noted on the Registration Calendar http://www.uwgb.edu/registrar/calendar/index.asp. Late adds are not accepted from week ten to the end of a semester. A student may submit a special petition to late add a course for extenuating circumstances to Student Services. The Enrollment Review Committee will review petition and determine if a late add can be granted. Courses are not retroactively added once the semester has concluded.
Course Drops
The course drop deadline is established to give students ample opportunity to discover what content a course will cover, the type of readings and projects to be assigned, the instructor's teaching style, and the methods of evaluation. In some courses, feedback from a formal evaluation process may not be available before the drop deadline. In such cases, it is the student's responsibility to contact the instructor before the drop deadline to obtain information useful in making the drop decision.

The phases of the course drop policy are:

Through the end of the second week of a 14-week semester or for any course less than 12 weeks in duration, the end of the first week

- student may drop any course via SIS
- permanent record shows no drop

The third through sixth weeks for 14-week courses or for any course less than 12 weeks in duration, the second week up to the date in which half the course has been completed

- student may drop any course via SIS
- course appears on permanent record with a DR (dropped)

Seventh week through the end of the semester or for any course less than 12 weeks in duration, after half the course has been completed

- no official drops allowed

Auditions
In performance courses requiring an audition, students are responsible for making their own arrangements for the audition before classes begin.

Courses and Related Policies

Course Requisites
Requisites are included in the course descriptions and the Schedule of Classes and are indicated by the designation P:. Requisites indicate the minimum level of proficiency or background knowledge needed to successfully achieve course objectives.

Recommended Prior Courses
Recommended prior courses are indicated in the course descriptions by the designation REC:. Recommended courses are basically advisory and are usually lower-level courses. Students who have the knowledge or skill recommended for a course may enroll without completing prior recommended courses, but they do so at their own risk. Students cannot expect a course instructor to hold back the progress of a class for those who have not taken the recommended prior courses. If students misjudge their ability to take a course without the recommended prior courses, they may get a much lower grade than they would wish. They also run the risk of feeling compelled to drop the course, thereby losing tuition and book and materials costs.
Repeating Courses
Most courses may be repeated for successful completion. Please note certain courses have a repeatable limit associated with the course identified in the course description as Repeatable up to 6 credits. Repeated courses are designated by the word Repeated after the course listing on the transcript. When a repeated course is complete, the original grade and entry on the transcript remain. However, the credits, grade, and grade points earned for the most recent completion are used to calculate cumulative attempted credits, grade points earned, and grade point average. Courses repeated at another institution have no effect on grade point average at UW-Green Bay.

The University does not guarantee the right to retake any course. Courses may be deactivated, discontinued, or offered on a different schedule.

In addition, based on federal regulations effective July 1, 2011, some repeat coursework may be excluded when evaluating a student’s credit load as it relates to federal and/or state financial aid eligibility.

Exceptions to requisites may be made by the course instructor or the instructional unit chairperson. Students who do not meet requisites must have written approval for an exception before enrolling in a course.

Independent and Internship Study
Regular semester add and drop deadlines apply to independent and internship study.

Students may receive credit for independent study under the course numbers 298 for lower-level work or 498 for upper-level work. Enrollment may be for one to four credits per course.

To arrange for an independent study, a student should find an instructor who will support the study. The student must prepare a statement of objectives and a list of readings and/or research projects that will fulfill the objectives. The proposal must be described on a form available for this purpose. This written proposal, approved by the instructor and budgetary chair, must be filed in the Office of the Registrar at the time of registration or course addition.

Independent study courses are subject to these limitations:

- Independent studies cannot duplicate a regular UW-Green Bay course; independent study is intended to expand the curriculum.
- A freshman or sophomore must have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.5 and a junior or senior must have a minimum of 2.0 to do independent study.
- Independent study cannot be elected on audit or pass-no credit basis.
- Independent study may be taken only with a regular member of the UW-Green Bay faculty or academic staff.

Earning a Second Bachelor’s Degree at UW-Green Bay
Students who have earned a baccalaureate degree from UW-Green Bay may earn a second, distinct baccalaureate degree by completing a minimum of 30 additional undergraduate credits related to the second major, in residence subsequent to the awarding
Students with Two or More Majors

Students who declare two or more majors at the same time are granted only one baccalaureate degree and receive only one diploma upon graduation. If the majors declared have different degree designations, then the student must choose which degree they want to receive. All successfully completed majors are recorded on the student’s academic transcript.

Withdrawal from the University

Deadlines are established for students who wish to withdraw from all courses and the institution. A decision to withdraw should be given careful consideration in terms of veteran’s benefits, athletic eligibility, financial aid, family health insurance coverage, student loan repayment deferral, and other situations which have specific consequences from withdrawal. A student who withdraws from two consecutive semesters must seek readmission to the University to enroll again.

The phases of the withdrawal policy are:

Through the end of the second week of a 14-week semester or for any course less than 12 weeks in duration, the end of the first week

- student may drop all their courses via SIS
- student is withdrawn for the semester
- permanent record shows no grades for courses

The third through sixth weeks for 14-week courses or for any course less than 12 weeks in duration, the second week up to the week in which half the course has been completed

- student may drop all their courses via SIS
- student is withdrawn for the semester
- courses appear on permanent record with DR (dropped) or W (withdrawn) grades

Seventh week through the twelfth week of the semester for any regular 14-week course in a fall or spring semester

- student must contact Registrar’s Office to withdraw for the semester, are not able to withdraw on their own
- courses appear on permanent record with W (withdrawn) grades

Thirteenth week through the end of the regular 14-week semester or for any course less than 12 weeks in duration, after half the course has been completed

- no official withdrawals allowed

If a student has not attended classes or taken the final examination in a course, a grade of WF (unofficial withdrawal) is given unless official withdrawal procedures are followed. The DR or W grade and has no effect on grade point average. Any drop or withdrawn course does count as an attempt of a course.

Late Program Changes and Withdrawals

To drop courses after the six-week deadline, or make a complete withdrawal after the normal 12-week deadline students must complete the petition form found at this link, www.uwgb.edu/advising/forms/index.asp. Petitions can be submitted up until the end date of the semester as designated on the Academic Calendar (www.uwgb.edu/registrar/calendar/academic.asp). Generally, petitions will be approved only if one of these criteria can be verified and occurs during the semester the drop or withdrawal is requested:

- The student has serious mental or physical health problems verified by statement from a physician or professional counselor.
- There is a death or prolonged serious illness in the immediate family, also verified by the family physician.
- Receiving orders being called to military service.

A student, who attended any course in a given term, may not petition to drop a course or completely withdraw from the University under any circumstances after the end date of the semester.

Completed petitions must be turned in at the Registrar’s Office. All petitions with appropriate documentation will be evaluated by the Enrollment Review Committee.

All-University Honors

Honors requirements for students who earn baccalaureate degrees are:

- Cum Laude designation requires a cumulative grade point average from 3.5 to 3.749;
- Magna Cum Laude designation requires a cumulative grade point average from 3.75 to 3.849;
- Summa Cum Laude designation requires a cumulative grade point average of 3.85 or higher; or a cumulative grade point average of 3.75 to 3.849 and eligibility for and successful completion of an honors in the major project.

The cumulative grade point average must be achieved on the basis of a minimum of 48 regularly graded (not P-NC or audit) credits taken in residence at UW-Green Bay.

Honors Recognition at Commencement

Students will be recognized at the commencement ceremony and honors cords provided if these two requirements are met: (1) the student’s cumulative grade point average meets the minimum requirements at the end of the semester preceding their final term; and (2) graded credits in residence, including credits in progress during her/his final term at UW-Green Bay, total a minimum of 48. Honors designations on transcripts will be based upon the student’s complete academic record.

Students with a 3.75 to 3.849 gpa must successfully complete the honors in the major project by the end of the semester preceding the final term to have the summa cum laude designation announced.
Honors in the Major

An honor in the major is different from all-university honors. Rather than a required, cumulative grade point average, the grade point average is calculated on courses required for the major only and there is no residence requirement as with all-university honors. An honor in the major is designed to recognize student excellence within interdisciplinary and disciplinary academic programs.

Honors in the major project may satisfy the requirements for summa cum laude honors as described above.

Eligibility requirements for honors in the major are:

- Minimum grade point average of 3.50 for all courses required for the major, as indicated on the degree audit;
- Minimum grade point average of 3.75 for all upper-level courses required for the major, as indicated on the degree audit;
- Successful completion of an honors in the major project (478 course number).

The honors in the major project should be planned during the junior year. Students should enroll for honors study during the first semester of registration with senior standing (84 or more degree credits) to ensure adequate time to complete it by graduation. Students should consult with sponsoring faculty during the junior year to determine possible special needs for library resources, equipment, supplies or field research.

Regular semester/session add and drop deadlines apply; no P-NC grading is permitted.
