What You'll Learn

Most business today is conducted in teams. Teams offer great advantages but can also be challenging. In this class, you will learn more about the dynamic of teams and teamwork in order to leverage the power of collaboration and minimize the dangers of conflict. More particularly, you will learn skills that will benefit you by:

- Giving you practical information that you can use the very next day on the job to help build and foster a culture of openness and collaboration.
- Gaining a better understanding of teams and how they change the way work gets done.
- Insuring optimal performance with seven proven tips and techniques.
- Building cooperation, performance and a higher level of employee engagement with more effective work teams.
- Avoiding the pitfalls of ineffective conflict resolution.

Learning Environment

This program will provide you with the tools to become a better team leader, while keeping you engaged through discussion, assessments, case studies and exercises.

Who Should Attend

- Small business owners
- Team leaders
- Supervisors
- Managers

Although our workshops are designed for people who supervise others, the concepts and skills taught are also relevant to anyone who works with people in a team environment. Whether you own your own business, or work in an office, at an agency, in a health care facility or manufacturing plant, you will take away valuable insights and skills to apply to your particular work situation.
