Rita E. Nelson Endowed Scholarship for Education Students

This scholarship is for a degree-seeking, non-traditional student, admitted into the Professional Program in Education at UWGB. Typically, traditional students are defined as students who “earn a high school diploma, enroll full time immediately after finishing high school, depend on parents for financial support and either do not work during the school year or work part time”.

To apply for this scholarship, please submit a personal essay including evidence of non-traditional status, financial need and academic success, extra-curricular activities and community involvement.

In addition, submit two letters of recommendation via the scholarship application process.
