University of Wisconsin Green Bay Education Program Policies

Student Teaching Policies

- The student teacher/intern is not assigned to schools in which a spouse or parent of the student teacher or intern is employed as a professional educator or administrator.
- The student teacher/intern is not assigned to schools in which siblings or children of the student teacher or intern are enrolled.
- The placement and supervision of a student teaching assignment outside of the 50-mile radius may be requested. An administrative fee of $500 to cover extra travel expenses will be the responsibility of the student.
- The student teaching placement may be for two 9-week terms or one 18-week term depending on the preference of the school district, the cooperating teacher, and the major/minor fields of certification.
- The placement will not be changed unless the change is requested by the cooperating teacher and/or the principal.
- The student teacher/intern will follow the calendar of the school in which the placement(s) occur(s). This calendar will differ from the University calendar.
- The student teacher/intern will follow the daily schedule for contracted teachers of the school.

Duration of the Student Teaching or Teaching Intern Assignment

For most student teachers, a minimum of twelve (12) credits of student teaching plus a two (2)-credit Student Teacher/Intern Seminar is required for completion of a certification program in elementary or secondary education at UWGB. This normally requires a minimum student teaching assignment of full days for the duration of a normal K-12 school semester or with the approval of the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction, an acceptable equivalent. For students who have to student teach in more than one subject and/or grade, the student teaching experience would include about nine (9) weeks for six (6) credits in one placement and a second nine (9) weeks for six (6) credits in the other placement. A student teacher or intern who begins an assignment in the fall should plan to attend all appropriate school in-service and other meetings which normally occur in the week preceding the beginning of the school year.

The Student Teacher/Intern

The student teacher/intern will be subject, at all times, to the supervisory authority of the principal of any school building involved and to the administrative personnel of the school district with respect to teachers generally. Within the classroom and at all school functions, the student teacher/intern shall be subject to the rules and regulations of the school and shall be under the direction of the cooperating teacher. The cooperating teacher may leave the classroom with the student teacher/intern in charge of the class, but the cooperating teacher shall, at all times, retain the supervisory responsibility and control over the class and the program of instruction.

During the student teaching experience, the student teacher/intern should be given the opportunity to teach in a variety of situations including large groups, small groups, and on a one-to-one basis. If the cooperating teacher uses a specific teaching model, the student teacher/intern shall be introduced to the model and guided in its use.

The student teacher/intern should be responsible for a full teaching day for at least two weeks (though not necessarily in a continuous block) during each quarter on the student teaching assignment. While it is important that the cooperating teacher regularly observe the teaching of a student teacher/intern, it may be advantageous for the cooperating teacher to be absent from the room at times so that the student teacher has the experience of teaching independently.

During the period of assignment, the student teacher/intern is expected to follow the calendar and daily school hours established for regular teachers in the school. Exceptions must have the express approval of the cooperating teacher, the appropriate administrator of the school or school system, the Coordinator/Director of Clinical Experiences in Education, and the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction.

Responsibilities of the Student Teacher/Intern

Pursuant to rules established by the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction and implemented by the UW Green Bay Professional Program in Education, student teachers and interns will be required to

1. Abide by standards of professional decorum established by the local education agency (schools and school districts) for personal comportment in interactions with students, staff, administrators, and community members.

2. Design and deliver instructional exercises and evaluate their teaching effectiveness as directed by the local education agency and the UW Green Bay Professional Program in Education.
3. Maintain records of the instructional exercises (i.e. logs, lesson plans, grade books, policies and as requested by the cooperating teacher and university supervisor.)
4. Agree to be observed by the cooperating teacher and university supervisor and participate in evaluation activities as deemed appropriate by these individuals.
5. Abide by the calendar and daily school hours established for regular teachers in the school.
6. Student teachers and interns may not serve as substitute teachers while completing student teaching.

Expectations for the Student Teaching/Interning Experience

As a professional, student teachers are expected to put in as much time as is necessary to complete the responsibilities as a teacher. At the very least, students are expected to follow the schedule for district/building teachers and arrive and depart when contracted teachers are required to arrive and depart. Student teachers are expected to participate in any functions required of contracted teachers.

1. Be punctual. Tardiness is never acceptable. Habitual tardiness is not tolerated and would be grounds for dismissal from student teaching.
2. Absences are not expected; however, illness is unpredictable. ALL absences must be reported according to the school policy, notifying the cooperating teacher and the student teaching coordinator at UWGB.
3. Follow the dress code for teachers.
4. Maintain lesson plans according to school direction.
5. Write detailed lesson plans on a regular basis. Have lesson plans available to the university supervisor and to the principal when requested.
6. Create learning center/bulletin board/teacher-made game, etc.
7. Design a curriculum unit of study/theme unit/integrated unit, etc.
8. Organize a portfolio of student work samples/collection of student essays/take pictures of students' projects, etc.
9. Observe students to gain an increased awareness of the emotional, intellectual, and physical characteristics of children and youth. Use this knowledge when developing learning experiences for them.
10. Maintain confidentiality of all records pertaining to students.
11. Collect samples of assessment/teacher-made tests/portfolio assessment process, etc.

12. Keep a journal/reflections/diary. Write reflections in day planner or on each lesson plan. This is not mandatory, but a highly encouraged suggestion.
13. Create a video of one of your lessons. Analyze/reflect on your performance. Follow school policy about photographing and recording students in video or digital formats.
14. Visit other classrooms and special area teachers (minimum of three is suggested) to observe teachings and teaching styles. Arrange with teachers with cooperating teacher's permission.
15. Participate in all teacher duty schedule/study halls/playground duties, etc.
16. Consult with the cooperating teacher and review student records for special needs, if permitted.
17. Correct and assess student work in a variety of ways.
18. Attend parent conferences and observe the cooperating teacher.
19. Attend faculty meetings with the cooperating teacher.
20. Participate in professional development with the cooperating teacher.
21. Familiarize yourself with the school, its philosophy, structure, materials, and community, and the school's policies for regularly employed staff.
22. Follow school policies for use of school-owned equipment and supplies.
23. Keep confidential any information that is given to you about students, faculty administrators, or your supervisor.
24. Maintain ethical conduct in all aspects particularly in the teachers' lounge. Do not speak in disparaging terms about a member of the staff, the student body, school patrons, the administration or another student.
25. Assume the role of a teacher in the community.
26. When attending faculty meetings, do not speak out in an inappropriate tone of voice. Offer suggestions or input if asked but remember that you are not an authority on the subject.
27. Do not use language that is inappropriate (swear words, suggestive innuendoes, sexual connotations.)
28. Do not have any physical contact with a student.
29. During any physical altercation, you are not to physically put your hands or body upon a student, unless there is physical harm possible to another student and/or to yourself. Even in such a case, you are to restrain, not attack the offending individual. You can and MUST verbally tell students to "STOP" any and all physical altercations. Also remember, that if you are the lone adult authority present, send a student to the office for immediate assistance.
30. If you encounter inclement weather, check the procedure with your cooperating teacher or the school office. Ask, what the procedure is when school must be cancelled for snow days. How will you be notified or what radio station, TV station, website, etc. should you check for confirmation?

*Note: Students should check with the main office of each school in which they participated to get the official policy for the school district concerning student behavior and proper policy in dealing with such incidents.

Substitute Teachers/Interns as Substitute Teachers

Student teachers and teaching interns do not have regular teaching licenses; and therefore, under the Wisconsin Statutes, they may not serve as substitute teachers in the public schools of Wisconsin. The student teacher understands that local education agencies do NOT permit unlicensed student teachers to serve as substitute teachers at any time nor are licensed intern teachers permitted to assume responsibilities beyond the limits of an approved internship plan.

The student teacher understands that paid substitute teaching cannot be substituted for student teaching. If the student teacher is a licensed substitute teacher and wishes to terminate the student teaching experience to work as a substitute teacher, the student will be required to complete student teaching during the next term if the student wished to receive a teacher certification recommendation.

Absences

Student teachers are to be in attendance for the entire school day and are to assist in co-curricular activities as may be suggested by the cooperating teacher and university supervisor. In the event of emergency absence, it is the responsibility of the student teacher/intern to notify the cooperating teacher, university supervisor, coordinator of student teaching, and/or building principal as much in advance as possible. In the event of an absence, the student teacher must be sure that all lesson plans, books, and materials are available to the cooperating teacher at the school.

All absences must be approved by the cooperating teacher, university supervisor, and coordinator of student teaching. Student teachers must notify all appropriate people when the absence occurs. Plans for non-emergency absences should be discussed with and approved by the cooperating teacher, university supervisor, and coordinator of student teaching well in advance. An example of a legitimate non-emergency absence would be to attend a job interview or to serve on a jury; however, these absences must be limited. Personal appointments should be scheduled after school or during breaks.

Student teaching assignments may be extended for absences due to prolonged illness and/or unexcused absences or will be terminated and completed when the student teacher has recovered.

Prolonged illnesses and/or absences should be discussed with the student teaching coordinator. Special circumstances need to be discussed with the cooperating teacher, university supervisor, and student teaching coordinator immediately. A mutual decision will be made concerning the feasibility of extending the student teaching placement.

Tardiness is unacceptable. Student teachers should report to school no later than the same time teachers are expected to be at school. Cooperating teachers are asked to make a note of tardiness. If this is a problem, it should be reported to the Student Teacher Coordinator after the third occurrence.

Work Stoppage

If a work stoppage (job action, slow down) occurs in a cooperating school system where UWGB students are assigned as interns, student teachers, or for other field experiences in Education, it is the policy of the Faculty in Education and the University of Wisconsin Green Bay, that such students be declared non-participants to either party involved. During this period of time when the schools are closed or when they are declared open without resolution of the conflicting issues between the Board of Education and the local teachers' association, the students will not report to the school but will report to the UWGB Campus. Upon consultation with the concerned parties, a change may be made in the assignment location or duration as may appear necessary or desirable in order that the objectives of the assignment will be achieved. The final decision in such cases is the responsibility of the UWGB Faculty in Education.

This policy is declared not to favor one side or the other but to realistically recognize the student's status as a non-participant in the negotiation process and as a temporary assignee to the school system, and further, to protect all parties in the clinical programs from conflict and concern.

Liability

To date, there have been no incidents where elementary or secondary school students have been injured while under the supervision of a UWGB student teacher, intern, or student assigned to a school for other field experiences in Education. There are, however, several legal assumptions that can be stated:

1. Liability may be the responsibility of the UWGB student assigned to the school.
2. Liability may be the responsibility of the regular members of the cooperating school system's professional staff who have agreed to supervise UWGB students with or without increased compensation, or who at the time of the injury are supervising a student teacher, intern, or other student(s) assigned for field experiences in Education.
3. Liability may be institutional in character in that the responsibility might rest with:
 - a. the local school district which authorized the assignment of the UWGB student, or
 - b. the University of Wisconsin Green Bay, which was involved in the selection and assignment of the student.

All UWGB students who are assigned to schools as intern teachers, student teachers or for any other assigned field experience are covered as agents of the University under the State of Wisconsin liability program within the limits established by State Statutes. This coverage includes legal costs, bond and other expenses incurred in connection with the defense or settlement.

In addition, students should be covered by their own policy or a policy from a professional organization for liability insurance. WEAC memberships are encouraged for the Liability coverage.

Timelines for Student Teaching

University of Wisconsin Green Bay

Student teaching is the final supervised field experience for students seeking teacher certification. Learning to teach is a gradual process, much like the gradual release of responsibility, which includes observing teachers, preparing lesson plans and classroom activities, implementing the prepared lessons, assessing students, and assessing the performance of the student teacher to provide feedback for improvement. To make the student teaching experience as beneficial as possible, we suggest the following timeline as a GUIDE to assist you in your student teaching planning. While this timeline is provided as a guide, students may feel ready to accept more responsibility sooner. This is a mutual decision between the cooperating teacher and the student teacher. It should be noted, however, that the student teacher cannot fill in as a substitute teacher. The student teacher should be providing assistance to the classroom teacher while learning the role and responsibilities of the classroom teacher.

By Wisconsin State Statute 118.19(3)(a), “each student in the program is required to completed student teaching consisting of full days for a full semester following the daily schedule and semester calendar of the cooperating school.”

How To Be A Successful Student Teacher/Intern

Congratulations! You are embarking on the final field experience prior to entering the teaching profession. You are now the teacher! As a student you worried about earning good grades, spent long hours doing homework and taking tests. As a teacher, you are now facing students with those same worries. You are now preparing informative lessons, making up tests, assessing students' progress, and communicating with their parents. You will influence the performance of a student in the classroom and may have a long-term effect on their lives. You may even inspire a student to become a teacher.

The following information will help you prepare for the first week as a teacher and help you as you complete your student teaching/interning experience.

- You may have a lot of anxiety and apprehension about your new environment. Be pleasant and polite to everyone. Don't forget to smile.
- Be enthusiastic about the prospect of teaching. Show your cooperating teacher that you are energetic and anxious to learn. Volunteer to help in any way right away. The sooner you become involved, the sooner you will become comfortable with the new situation. Be punctual. We suggest that you are at school 15 minutes earlier than the teacher and leave 15 minutes later than the teacher. This shows that you are eager to begin and conscientious about preparing for the day. (Keep this in perspective—some teachers report to their classroom by 6 a.m. If you report earlier than that teacher, you may not get into the building.)
- Be punctual for school and for class. Students will model your behavior.
- Dress like a professional. Dress for where you want to be; not for where you are. Many successful teachers dress like their principal. If you want the students to treat you with respect as a teacher, you must look like a teacher. How you look can determine how you will be treated. It may not be right that people are judged by how they dress, but Harry Wong says in How to Be an Effective Teacher, The First Days of School, that research shows “that the clothing worn by teachers affects the work, attitude, and discipline of students. You dress for main effects: respect, credibility, acceptance, authority.”

- Don't be afraid to ask questions. This is a time for learning. Student teachers often think they will look stupid if they ask questions. It is better to know the answer than to do something incorrectly or inappropriately and have to go back and correct it.
- Learn the students' names as quickly as you can. Students feel that you show any interest in them by learning their name.
- Always use proper grammar and spell things correctly particularly on notes and papers sent home to the parents.
- Write legibly or print. You will be writing on the board or overheads periodically. Write large enough so the students can read it. Practice! Write on the board and go to the back of the room to see if you can read it!
- Stay calm even if things don't go well. Tomorrow is another day and you can start over.
- Observe all school policies related to teachers.
- Do not get caught up in the gossip in the teacher's lounge. Do not criticize your cooperating teacher to another teacher or criticize other teachers in the school. This is unprofessional behavior.
- RESPECT the confidentiality of all student records and information. Shred any confidential information when disposing of it.
- Do not discuss children, teachers, principals, etc. outside of your classroom.
- Be a sponge! Soak up everything that you can about your experience.
- Network with other teachers and become part of the school community.
- Be open-minded; be flexible.
- Do not be opinionated. Do not be a know-it-all. Listen and Learn!
- Be helpful and active.
- Avoid saying: “Our university professor said to do it this way.....” You can say, “Thank you for the idea; I learned a different way, but I will try it that way.”
- If you are encouraged to try out some of your ideas, please do so. However, some teachers are reluctant to try new things. They are happy with the way things are. Be patient and accepting. Remember that you are a visitor in another person's classroom. They are in charge.
- Be cautious if you notice unusual behavior in a child. If they are drawing pictures with a depressing theme continually, there could be a problem. Check with the cooperating teacher and/or the guidance counselor.
- Communicate often with your cooperating teacher. If there seems to be a personality difference, follow their lead. Do not push! Do not argue! Observe and Absorb!
- When you have your own classroom, you can try out your ideas!

Effective teachers vary not only their own instructional strategies, but also the types of assignments and activities given to students to support increased student engagement.

p. 54

Effective teachers provide specific goals and guidelines for homework and allow students to meet those requirements in various creative ways.

Effective teachers list homework as an important element in students' success.

Homework is more effective in influencing student achievement when it is graded, commented on, and discussed in class.

p. 55

Only 14 percent of teachers reported assigning homework for at least one half-hour per night.

For every additional 30 minutes spent on homework a night, high school students may increase their grade point average by half a point.

p. 57

Effective teachers plan and implement good monitoring strategies by targeting questions to the lesson objectives.

Effective teachers think through likely misconceptions that may occur during instruction and monitor students for signs of these misconceptions.

The Evaluation Process

In addition to the essential day-to-day evaluation, we believe that it is important to complete formal evaluations of the student teacher. The University of Wisconsin Green Bay requires a minimum of eight written evaluations for each student teacher/intern, based upon classroom observation by the cooperating teacher and the university supervisor.

The following evaluation forms will meet the minimum requirements for a 9-week student teaching placement:

- ✓ An Interim (Mid-Term) Evaluation of teaching performance;
- ✓ A Final Evaluation of teaching performance;
- ✓ The Recommendation for Teacher Certification form (See attached); and
- ✓ The Cooperating Teacher's Letter of Recommendation (Requested but optional).

The following evaluation forms will meet the minimum requirements for an 18-week student teaching placement:

- ✓ Three Evaluations of teaching performance throughout the first 12-15 weeks (See Attached);
- ✓ A Final Evaluation of teaching performance;
- ✓ The Recommendation for Teacher Certification form (see attached); and
- ✓ The Cooperating Teacher's Letter of Recommendation (Requested but optional).

The main criteria is "Does the student teacher have the potential to become a successful teacher"? Criteria for the evaluation of the student teacher's and intern's performance are in the areas of

- lesson preparation and planning,
- knowledge of subject matter,
- management of teaching processes,
- enthusiasm and initiative demonstrated in her/his teaching,
- the criterion of a positive learning atmosphere in the classroom,
- the motivation of pupils, his/her practices or classroom management and control,
- competence in human relations skills,
- professional attitudes,
- and their interactions with their pupils and with school staff members.

Such personal characteristics as emotional stability, adaptability and creativity, dependability and cooperation, communication and language skills, and voice quality, are also evaluated by the cooperating teacher.

All evaluations and recommendations made by the cooperating teacher and the university supervisor should be reviewed with the student teacher. Instructions on returning evaluations are below.

After the Student Teaching Coordinator receives and reviews the evaluations written by both the student teacher's/intern's Cooperating Teacher(s) and the University Supervisor, the UWGB Education Office will place copies of all documents in the student's education file in the Education Office.

It is very important that the student teacher/intern be aware of any problems (particularly those which would affect a certification recommendation) well before the end of the student teaching assignment. It is recommended that the student teacher/intern make every effort to communicate effectively with his/her cooperating teacher(s) and that he/she informs the university supervisor before problems that might jeopardize a favorable certification recommendation become irreconcilable. The Student Teaching Coordinator should be appraised of major problems or issues as they arise. DO NOT wait to inform the student, university supervisor, or the Coordinator/Director of Clinical Experiences of a problem which will affect the deferral or denial of a recommendation for a teaching license. All parties to the student teaching experience have the responsibility to communicate often and honestly in an effort to assist the student teacher in becoming an effective educator.

At the conclusion of the student teaching assignment, the cooperating teacher will hold a final, culminating conference with the student. The “Final Evaluation” of the student teaching/interning performance report and the other formal evaluations should be discussed with the student teacher/intern at that conference. If desired, the cooperating teacher and/or student teacher/intern may request that the university supervisor also participate in this culminating conference.

As stated earlier, the cooperating teacher will forward the completed “Final Evaluation” of teaching performance, “Recommendation for Teacher Certification,” and the written letter of evaluation to the Education Department Office. These may be mailed to the UWGB Education Office or submitted electronically (See instructions below). The final evaluation form(s) and the recommendation for teacher certification are placed in the student’s file in the Education Office. Student teachers who are applying for teaching positions before completion of their student teaching assignment are advised to request an interim letter of recommendation from both the cooperating teacher and the university supervisor.

Evaluation Materials

The evaluation forms and materials are offered electronically via the UWGB Education Website under the student teaching tab. There are numerous ways that cooperating teachers and/or supervisors may submit evaluations to the Education Office. Instructions for all available options are explained further in detail below. The student should always receive one copy of the evaluation for his or her personal records:

1. Print, or save, the Evaluation Forms and Recommendation Forms at: www.uwgb.edu/education
2. Complete the evaluation either on paper or via a computer.
3. Mail, or email, the completed evaluation to Jamie Tyrrell, Professional Program in Education 2420 Nicolet Drive Green Bay, WI 54311, (frohtyrj@uwgb.edu) by the suggested timeline dates below.

EDUC 405 Student Teaching Syllabus

Course Description:

Student teaching is the final full-semester of supervised field experience for students seeking teacher certification. You will be completely immersed in the role of a teacher following the school calendar, contract days, and school policies in the district(s) assigned. Student teaching includes observing teachers, preparing lesson plans and classroom activities, implementing the prepared lessons, assessing students, and assessing your own performance with feedback from the cooperating teacher and university supervisor, making changes as required.

Materials:

University of Wisconsin-Green Bay: Professional Program in Education. Student Teacher/Intern Handbook: Policies and Guidelines for Student Teaching and Intern

Course Requirements:

1. Complete full days of student teaching for one full 18-week semester according to the school calendar of each placement following teacher contract times, calendar, and expectations.
2. Participate in seminars and activities provided for staff in your building
3. Prepare daily lesson plans
4. Maintain a reflective journal (Optional)

Evaluations:

Student teaching is a university class and is graded with either a "Pass/No Credit." Each student will be evaluated according to the Danielson Framework for Effective Teaching and the Ten InTASC Standards. The student teacher will demonstrate proficient performance in the knowledge, skills, and dispositions upon final evaluation. While each cooperating teacher is expected to provide ongoing guidance and assessments throughout the placement, each quarter the cooperating teacher will provide two formal evaluations—one approximately 4 to 5 weeks into the placement and one at the end of each placement. A university supervisor will provide two formal evaluations each quarter for each placement at approximately the same time. The cooperating teacher, in consultation with the University Supervisor and Certification Officer, will recommend that certification be granted, deferred, or denied.

Any student not completing each of the placements successfully will not fulfill the requirements of the courses and may receive a grade of "NC." In addition, if the student is assessed to be deficient in his/her performance and meeting expectations, the placement(s) could be extended or required to be repeated.

If the student teaching experience is requested to be terminated by any participant, the student will be expected to repeat the experience as approved by the department chair if all are in agreement that the student is qualified to do this. The student must demonstrate competency and receive a recommendation from the faculty advisor in order to complete student teaching.

Special Accommodations:

Any student requiring special accommodations because of Special Needs should notify the Education Office in writing with a detailed explanation at the beginning of the placement along with the necessary special accommodations. A copy of this request should be given to cooperating teacher at the first meeting. If the school is unable to provide these accommodations, the placement may need to be changed. A copy of this request is expected to be received in the Education Office prior to delivery to the cooperating teacher and should be discussed with the University's Disabilities Coordinator.

Absences:

Student teachers are expected to arrive on time and be prepared for each day. Absences are not allowed; however, if it is necessary to miss school due to illness or emergencies, the student teacher must notify the cooperating teacher immediately. The student teacher should discuss the process with the cooperating teacher before an absence occurs to learn what procedure is expected.

Habitual tardiness and absences could be grounds for termination of the student teaching experience.

Professional Attitude:

As a present or future pre-service teacher in the Professional Program in Education at the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay, all education students represent the teaching profession. Behavior in classes, workshops, and professional settings reflect personally on student teachers as a teacher and on the Education Program at UW-Green Bay.

Attire:

Student teachers are expected to dress professionally and follow the dress code of the placement school.

Seminars:

EDUC 414 Seminar in Student Teaching/Internship is a separate class and is graded separately.

The seminar meetings are established as support meetings for students while they are experiencing being “the teacher.” Please attend all seminar meetings. This is a time to share experiences with others. Please commit to following an educational philosophy and be an open-minded active learner.

Expectations:

1. Maintain a daily plans, lesson plans, or prepare lesson plans according to requirements for teachers.
2. Visit other classrooms and special area teachers to observe different teaching styles. Arrange with teachers with cooperating teacher’s permission.
3. Consult with the cooperating teacher and review student records for special needs, if permitted.
4. Correct and assess student work in a variety of ways.
5. If possible, attend parent conferences and observe the cooperating teacher.

edTPA Writing Day Letter – Student Copy

September 2018

Dear Cooperating Teacher,

As you may be aware, student teachers are expected to complete and pass the edTPA in order to receive teacher licensure in the State of Wisconsin.

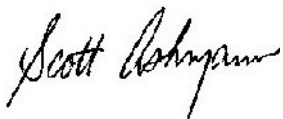

The edTPA is a performance-based assessment divided into three tasks: Planning for Instruction and Assessment, Instructing and Engaging Students in Learning, and Assessing Student Learning. During the completion of these tasks, students are expected to plan lessons, video-record lesson delivery, and assess student learning all while extensively reflecting on the work being completed.

This assessment is required by the State of Wisconsin, and it must be passed in order for a student to be licensed. While you may serve as a support and resource for your student teacher during the edTPA, it is ultimately the student's responsibility. Student Teachers have been provided with permission forms that explain the assessment for students and parents and what is involved. UWGB Student Teachers have also been required to sign a Contract of Confidentiality and Safe Use of Technology form which is on file with the Professional Program in Education.

In order to support our students through the process of completing an edTPA, we have scheduled an edTPA focus day on Friday, November 16, 2018. With your permission we would like to invite your student teacher to attend an on-campus workday for the edTPA. Should your student teacher choose not to participate in the edTPA writing day, then they are expected to join you in the classroom like normal on November 16th.

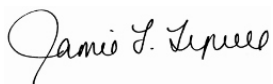

Thank you in advance for your understanding. If you would like to learn more about the edTPA, we encourage you to visit www.edtpa.com. Please feel free to contact us with any further questions.

Sincerely,

Dr. Scott Ashmann
