

Uskah útlatste? -atlatst- one time	kanáklehkwe? -nakle- there were many	kunu·kwé. -ukwe- women
Kwah i·ká tsi? wakyó·té; quite a bit I work	tsi? ya?tewahsúhtake -yo?te- every night	ohaha?késhe? -ahah- on the roads
wa?katakhéshe -takhe- she was running	ne win aonikahlú·tsla? -nikahlú?tsl- her boyfriend	loya?ti·sáks. -ya?tisak- she looks for him
Tahnu yáka? and they say	kuwahlista? nok tsi? -hlist- she was told not to but	tho niyolihó·ta. -liho?ta- it was her way
Kuwahlo·líhe? -hloli- she was told	tsi? ostúha ok aya·wáne? -a?- that a little bit it may happen	aho·ká· -ka- she will see him
ohsúhtok. a night ghost	Tho kwi ne na?a·wáne? -a?- so then it did happen	tsi? náhte? kuwahlo·líhahkwe. -oht- -hloli- what they were telling her
Katsá ok ale? wi nú somewhere again	ye·wéskwe -e- she was there	ka?i·ká kaya?tase?kó -ya?tase- this young girl
yahoya?tátstale? -ya?tatstal- she couldn't find him	nuwá now	ka?i·ká aonikahlú·tsla. nikahlú?tsl- her boyfriend
Ná tsusayohtatyuháti -ahtaty- then when she was going home	yothu·té· -athute- she heard	ót ok náhohte? tayolakale·lé· -oht- -lakalele- something a noise coming
ohná·ka behind	tsi? i·wé· -e- where she is	wáhelhe? ne ká ne?n aonikahlú·tsla. -elhe- -nikahlú?tsl- she thought is it her boyfriend

Okhale? o·nál kwáh wa?thnito·kálhte? tsi? i·wé.
-toklht- -e-
and then quite they are side by side where she is Tahnú yákΛ? kwáh ka na?tehyatláti tsi? uni yahotkátho?

-atlatye- -atkatho-
and they say they are close together when she saw him

yah nΛhké thya?tehala·tá·se? ohwΛtsyá·ke.
-lata?s- -uhwΛtsy-
not even were his feet on on the ground

NΛ kwi wa?otétsΛ kwáh o·nál kanuhsákta yusu·wé·
-atetsΛ- -nuhs- -aw-
so then she got scared just then near the house she got back

nΛ wa?tyohΛ·léhte? okhna? tayutke?to·tá· ne?n kuwayáha.
-hΛleht- -atke?tot- -yΛha-
then she yelled and she looked out she is parent to her

Wa?i·lu?, “Ot né· na?a·wáne?” NΛ uní ne tho yakΛtáklane.
-ihlu- -Λ?- -itakla?-
she said what happened now there she fell

Tho kwí né yeskuwakétskwΛ tsiléhkwa né ayolyó·uke?
-ketskw- -lyo-
so then she got her up almost she was killed

ne yákΛ? wí ka?i·kál ohsuhtók wahatyanlúhkwΛ.
-atyanluhk-
so they say this night ghost he bewitched her