

Green Tour

WOOD HALL HYDRATION STATION

- Sixteen hydration stations are spread out around campus to allow for convenient access to drinking water and encourage the use of reusable water bottles.
- An environmentally informative poster accompanies each hydration station and is changed monthly.
- At each station, there is a running count of all of the plastic bottles the hydration station has helped eliminate waste from.

