

Green Tour

ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCES

- The Natural and Applied Sciences (NAS) Seminar Series is an informational program held every Friday during the academic year on the third floor of the Environmental Sciences building.
- The Environmental Management and Business Institute (EMBI) office, located on the first floor, is involved in promoting environmental sustainability.
- The Sustainability Certificate program offered through EMBI allows students to support sustainability by engaging with the local community.

