HUMAN MOSAIC

Spring 2018

The mission of UW-Green Bay's Pride Center is to identify and respond to the concerns and needs of LGBTQ+ students, faculty, staff, and their allies; to provide high-quality support services that contribute to the academic and personal growth of LGBTQ+ students, faculty, staff and allies; and to offer a safe, supportive and welcoming environment for LGBTQ+ people and their allies.

The UW-Green Bay Multicultural Student Affairs (MESA) office (formerly AIC) provides services and activities that promote the academic success, personal growth and development of multicultural students. MESA also conducts educational programs that enhance learning, promote respect and create appreciation for racial and ethnic diversity. MESA supports the academic mission of UW-Green Bay and contributes to the development of a campus community dedicated to diversity of thought and experience.

Each organization will have an interactive activity designed to increase awareness and understanding of diversity. Admission is free from noon to 5 p.m.

An Evening with Ken Nwadike, Jr., Founder of "Free Hugs Project"

Thursday, February 15
6-7 p.m.

Phoenix Room B; University Union

In this fun, creative and interactive program, guest speaker Ken Nwadike, Jr. brings his "Free Hugs Project" to engage participants in conversations of understanding and compassion amidst the rising tide of hatred and racism. The goal of this program is to create unity and build community, and remind participants that we are all humans in need of love. Ken's courageous work as a peace activist is helping to heal and narrow the social, political and racial divide that currently exists throughout our country. His energy, spirit, passion and love are changing individual behaviors and group interactions for the better.

Jane Elliott's Blue-Eyed Film Discussion

Tuesday, February 20
5-7:30 p.m.

Christie Theatre;
University Union

In Jane Elliott's 1996 film Blue-Eyed, we join a group of 40 teachers, police, school administrators and social workers in Kansas City, KS — all people from different races who are made subjects of a social experiment. In this experiment, participants are subjected to pseudo-scientific explanations of their inferiority, culturally biased IQ tests and blatant discrimination. Join Women of Color, a UW-Green Bay student organization, in watching this film and engaging in discussion afterwards.

Cia Verschelden's Bandwidth Recovery: Helping Students Reclaim Cognitive Resources Lost to Poverty, Racism, and Social Marginalization Discussion

Mondays, February 26 and March 26
10-11:30 a.m.

Location TBD

Join UW-Green Bay's CATL and co-facilitators, Prof. David Voelker, Humanities and History, and Kate Burns, Human Development and Psychology, in a discussion of Cia Verschelden's book Bandwidth Recovery: Helping Students Reclaim Cognitive Resources Lost to Poverty, Racism, and Social Marginalization. This book argues that the cognitive resources for learning of over half our young people have been diminished by the negative effects of economic insecurity, discrimination and hostility against non-majority groups based on race, ethnicity, sexual orientation or gender identity and other aspects of difference. The book offers a set of strategies and interventions to rebuild the available cognitive resources necessary to succeed in college. Contact CATL at catl@uwgb.edu to reserve your spot today! A limited number of copies of the books are available on loan.

Unveiling the Truth: The Hijab Story

Monday, March 19
6-8 p.m.

Phoenix Room B;
University Union

Hijab is usually worn by Muslim women, yet many people do not know what the Hijab is and might wonder how Muslim women wear it. Come and learn with us at this interactive Hijab workshop where you can learn the history of the Hijab. There will be a presentation to fully understand everything there is to be known about wearing the Hijab and understanding the role it plays in the Muslim faith.

Dolores: Rebel. Activist. Feminist. Mother. Film and Discussion

Tuesday, March 27
5-7 p.m.

Christie Theatre; University Union

Dolores is a film about Dolores Huerta who, alongside Cesar Chavez, fought tirelessly for racial and labor justice and became one of the most defiant feminists of the twentieth century. Many know Cesar Chavez as someone who transformed the U.S. labor movement by leading the first farm worker's union. However, like so many powerful women advocates, Dolores and her sweeping reforms were — and still are — sidelined and diminished. Join us for the film and discussion!

All Campus Clothing and Household Swap

Wednesday, April 4
9 a.m.-4 p.m.

Phoenix Rooms A & B;
University Union

The All Campus Clothing Swap is an opportunity for employees, students and alumni to donate gently used and new items. Items needed for the swap include: books, small furniture, toys and games, lamps, media, sports equipment, kitchen and linens, clothing for all ages and more! Items are collected and then placed on tables for a wide selection of great stuff. The drop-off date for donations is Tuesday, April 3 from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. in Phoenix Rooms A and B, or contact Stacie Christian at christis@uwgb.edu to arrange for another drop-off date.

Pride Center Drag Show!

Saturday, April 7
7-9 p.m.

Phoenix Rooms; University Union

Students and community members will get the chance to come together and bond over their interest in the art of drag while simultaneously learning about drag culture. There will be a Q&A session prior to the show where you can ask the talented drag performers questions that you have been dying to ask — and then the show will commence! There will be a chance to mingle with the performers once the show is over. This event is free and open to the public!

The Breadwinner Film and Discussion

Tuesday, April 10
and Wednesday, April 11
6 p.m.

Christie Theatre; University Union

The Breadwinner is a tale of two stories. One is the story of Parvana, an 11-year-old girl who gives up everything to provide for her family and reunite with her father. The second story is the tale that Parvana tells her brother of a boy who is trying to get back the spring harvest seeds that were stolen from his village by magical beasts. This animated film is full of lush and vibrant colors, with the story Parvana tells her brother full of mosaic-like frames. The film is 93 minutes in length followed by a 30 minute discussion.
