Event Title	(M)iyamoto is Black Enough
Event Abstract	Maybe it's punk, or funk, or new poetry punk, or acid new music; but whatever it is, (M)iyamoto is Black Enough is pulling audiences out of their seats with a combination of poems and complex musical compositions that, together, speak directly and forcefully to the issues of all our times with driving and hypnotic beats. Featuring the poetry of Roger Bonair-Agard, the compositions of Andy Akiho (steelpan and percussion) with Jeffrey Zeigler on cello and Sean Dixon on drums, MiBE continues to build some of the most exciting collaborations in the new music world. Produced by National Sawdust. This engagement is supported by the Arts Midwest Touring Fund, a program of Arts Midwest that is funded by the National Endowment for the Arts, with additional contributions from the Wisconsin Arts Board and the Crane Group.

Event Title	Inclusivity and Equity Foundations: Student Leaders
Event Abstract	Students are invited to attend the first Inclusivity and Equity Foundations training offered to Student Leaders. Student Leaders are individuals who wish to learn more how to participate and engage in assisting with the growth and development of an inclusive and equitable campus climate, and who also have an understanding that each of us need to contribute to change. This course will focus on vocabulary, the difference between being inclusive and tolerant, how the campus is evolving, campus climate goals, and how to create an inclusive environment. Knowing that future employers are seeking students who intend to make Inclusivity and Equity a part of their life-long learning, each participant will receive a certificate for completing the foundations training, and will learn more on how to earn the Inclusivity and Equity Student Leader Certificate and graduation cord that will be available starting Spring 2021. To RSVP for this program, which will be the prototype of future courses available to students please complete this survey: https://proxy.qualtrics.com/proxy/?url=https%3A%2F%2Fuwgreenbay.ca1.qualtrics.com%2Fife%2Fform%2FSV_6Kb57uczSenngqV&token=SkmkIclHaet6kOECUk3d%2B42IjB8gu08YjHBotw%2BSEoc%3D

Event Title	All Campus Roundtable Campus Climate Discussion
Event Abstract	The all Campus Roundtable Discussion is utilized to have a quick, detailed discussion concerning two questions that each participant answer concerning each participants personal experience with Campus Climate and Inclusion. Over 300 participants, students, faculty and staff sit together at round tables and answer 2 questions that are presented to the group as a whole during this event. Note takers at each table collect thoughts and insights used to guide the campus in a direction that is desired by participants, that is why it is important for each of us to participate. Historically at least 40 pages of information is gathered and immediate action is taken to increase inclusivity, equity and sometimes campus safety based on the responses. Each question has 30 minutes of discussion, before the next question is introduced. Participants can attend for 30 minutes or up to two hours as they wish. Recommend participation of at least one hour. Light snacks and water provided in Phoenix Rooms. All campuses encouraged to participate, arrangements will be made to include individuals on Manitowoc, Sheboygan, and Marinette campus who cannot drive to UW-Green Bay location to participate-please contact Stacie Christian, Ph.D. at christis@uwgb.edu to ensure your inclusion.
