

Cultivating Provider Competency with Eating Disorders: Identification, Treatment, and Knowing When to Refer

Trainers: Nichole Baumgartner, MA, LPC, NCC & Emily Gaber, MS, NCC, LPC*

Training Description:

In this training, presenters will provide an in-depth description of clinical identification and treatment of eating disorders. Development and maintenance of the illnesses will be discussed through the biopsychosocial and cognitive behavioral models. Presenters will provide local specialized referral sources, discuss the limitations to outpatient work, and challenge clinician biases. Clinicians will learn how to support eating disorder recovery through crisis management, specific intervention, and necessary collaboration. Resources for further education and pursuit of eating disorder certification will be provided.
