

Althea Steele Lederer Scholarship

History:

The scholarship was started in 1979 by Albert Lederer, family members and friends, in memory of Althea Steele Lederer. Mrs. Lederer studied journalism and worked professionally as a newspaper writer and editor until illness forced her into retirement.

Criteria:

Continuing students majoring in either art or journalism with preference given to those who are physically disabled.

Amount of Award:

$350.00

How Do I Apply:

Send latest resume, including your current grade point average, and a professionally-written essay presenting your academic achievements and university or community service relating to journalism.

Writing Standard:

APPLICATIONS SHOULD BE PROFESSIONALLY WRITTEN AND FORMATTED. Applications ought to be proofread and spell-checked. Applications that do not meet this minimum standard will not be considered by the selection committee.

Deadline to Apply:

Please refer to the main scholarship communication page for details.

<http://www.uwgb.edu/communication/scholarships/>