

SOURCES IN INTER-CULTURAL LEARNING
NATIVE AMERICAN

We have divided our multicultural curriculum materials into three areas: Inter-Cultural Learning, Anti-Bias Curriculum and Selecting Multicultural Materials. The materials listed below are in the area of Inter-Cultural Learning with an emphasis on Native American materials. They provide information for students and teachers about Native people in the Western Hemisphere and can be used in classes in the fields of literature, math, history, science, and the arts, among others. We have also included several books which contain invaluable cultural information for teaching Native American children.
