Roommate Group FAQs:

- Roommate groups work like a ‘friend request’, a potential roommate must accept the invitation to be part of a group.
- Only students who have signed a Housing Contract can be invited to join a roommate group.
- You may only belong to one roommate group at a time.
- You are part of a group even if you are the only person in the group. Do not create a group unless you intend to invite other students to join.
- Invitations/updates are sent to every member of the group.

Search for your desired roommate by entering their Campus ID or full name

Then click “Search”
Once your desired roommate is found, click “Select” to add them to your invite list. Your search result will be shown here. If your desired roommate is not found, check for a miss-entered Campus ID or misspelled name.

Continue adding additional desired roommates using the “Invite” button until your group is formed.

Clicking the “Leave” button will dissolve the entire group.

If you change your mind about a potential roommate, use the “Remove” button to remove someone from the group.
You MUST click the “Submit” button for your selections or changes to be saved.

You will receive an onscreen confirmation that your changes have been saved.
Responding to a Roommate Invitation

Click the “Accept” button to join the group.

As long as you are a group member, you will be assigned housing with the group.

Changes to your group membership, including your removal or group disbanding, will be sent to your campus email.

Click the “Decline” button if you do not wish to join this group.

You MUST click the “Submit” button for your selections or changes to be saved.

You will receive an onscreen confirmation that your changes have been saved.
Leaving a Roommate Group

Click the “Leave” button if you want to leave the group.

You will receive a warning asking you to confirm your desire to leave the group.

Once you leave a group, the group leader will need to send a new invitation in order for you to rejoin the group.

You MUST click the “Submit” button for your selections or changes to be saved.

You will receive an onscreen confirmation that your changes have been saved.
Removing a Roommate or Disbanding a Roommate Group

If you are the Group Leader and click the “Leave” button, the entire group will be disbanded. All members will be removed and will no longer be part of a group. You will receive a warning asking you to confirm your desire to disband the group.

Click the “Remove” button if you want to remove a person from your roommate group. You will receive a warning asking you to confirm your desire to remove the person from the group.

You MUST click the “Submit” button for your selections or changes to be saved.
