

Multi-Ethnic Student Affairs (MESA)

The MESA office is a student service office that serves UW-Green Bay's diverse student population with support and programs that affirm and share cultures while strengthening academic and leadership skills. MESA is a proud office of the Division of University Inclusivity and Student Affairs.

ABOUT US

The MESA office provides student support and activities that promote the academic success, personal growth and development of UW-Green Bay multicultural students. Through educational programs, UW-Green Bay students enhance their learning, respect and appreciation for racial and ethnic diversity. In addition, MESA offers students an informal suite space, study/computer room, meeting room and a small kitchenette. MESA supports the academic mission of the UW-Green Bay and contributes to the development of a campus community dedicated to diversity of thought and experience.

MESA STUDENT SERVICES

- 1 Provide academic, social and cultural support to help multicultural students achieve their educational goals.
- 2 Orient and advise new multicultural students to the culture of the institution.
- 3 Promote and deepen students' understanding of their own and other's cultural heritage and identity.
- 4 Educate the campus community on the ways diverse cultures enrich the college experience.
- 5 Provide leadership training for multicultural students where issues of diversity, identity and cross-cultural communication skills can be strengthened.
