AUSTIN E. COFRIN SCHOOL of BUSINESS
UNIVERSITY of WISCONSIN–GREEN BAY

Student Honor Code

Student Honor Code As a student of the Cofrin School of Business I commit to conduct myself in the following ways as I interact with my classmates, instructors , university, and community.

Behave honestly and with integrity by:

- Doing my own work and giving others credit for their work.
- Using technology legally.

Take responsibility:

- For my education by participating in classes, being prompt, and being prepared.
- To understand and clarify expectations.
- For the learning environment by participating and sharing ideas.
- To keep commitments made to instructors and classmates.
- To be a considerate team member by taking on a fair share of duties and communicating positively.

Exhibit professional behavior by:

- Engaging in service projects for the university/or community.
- Acting in a socially responsible and ethical manner.
- Being respectful, courteous, and supportive of diverse individuals and thoughts.

☐ I have read and reviewed the above Student Honor Code and here by agree to abide by it.

☐ I also understand if I engage in serious misconduct I may be subject to discipline.

The Cofrin School of Business administration cannot anticipate all situations that might be a violation of this Student Honor Code, but that does not mean that the administration cannot enforce appropriate policies. Remember, you have rights and responsibilities and these are outlined in the Policies and Procedures of the UW-Green Bay Dean of Students Office, including Chapters 14, 17, and 18 of the UW System Administrative Code.
