UW-Green Bay's Phuture Phoenix program provides opportunities for students from underrepresented and disadvantaged backgrounds to believe postsecondary education is important, attainable, and available.

THE IMPACT

6,691 hours of mentoring provided by UWGB Mentors during the 2015-2016 school year.

1,005 unique students were mentored during the 2015-2016 school year.

15 different schools were served during the 2015-2016 school year.

In the Green Bay Area, West De Pere, and Oconto Nation School Districts

MENTORING BREAKDOWN

Of the 1,005 total students mentored during the 2015-2016 school year, 52% were male and 48% were female. Of these students, 45% were in middle/elementary school, 53% were in high school.

During the 2015-2016 school year, there were over 42 mentors served 252 students. Mentors completed more than 10 homework assignments over a given semester, representing over 500 completed homework assignments.

252 middle, high school students were served over 10 times. 10 middle school students were served representing 25% of the total students mentored during the 2015-2016 school year.

MENTORING BREAKDOWN

167 UWGB MENTORS averaged 40.1 hours of mentoring during the 2015-2016 school year.

School Breakdown

UWGB Mentoring Hours

Student Achievement: Assignments Completed

For more information about Phuture Phoenix, visit our website: www.uwgb.edu/phuturephoenix