

UNIVERSITY of WISCONSIN
GREEN BAY

American Intercultural Center 2015
University Union 150
University of Wisconsin-Green Bay
2420 Nicolet Drive
Green Bay, WI 54311-7001

Coordinated by the AIC
UWGB values inclusion and will work to meet any needs that would lead to increased and improved participation at these events or programs. Please contact Mai Lo Lee to discuss any special accommodation requests.

Interim Diversity Director
Mai Lo Lee • lom@uwgb.edu

Inclusive Excellence
and Pride Center Coordinator
Stacie Christian • christis@uwgb.edu

Tuesday, February 7 • 12PM-2PM
Room 150, University Union

Welcome new and returning students, staff, and faculty while having the opportunity to meet and learn about the American Intercultural Center's team and services.

Snacks will be provided.

Wednesday, February 8 • 5PM
Christie Theatre, University Union

Milwaukee 53206 tells the story of those effected by mass incarceration in America's most incarcerated ZIP code. Through the powerful journeys of Beverly Walker, Dennis Walton and Chad Wilson, one will witness how incarceration has shaped their lives, families, and community. The film examines how decades of poverty, unemployment, and a lack of opportunity has contributed to the crisis of mass incarceration in this community and communities across the nation. There will be a discussion after the film.

Friday, February 10 • 5PM
Fox Cities Performing Arts Center

Travel to The Fox Cities Performing Arts Center in Appleton to explore American tradition through artistic movement and inspirational compositions from African-American composers: Tj. Anderson, Wynton Marsalis and Pamela Z. UWGB student tickets are $15 at the University Ticketing and Information Center. Purchase early to secure your seat, as there are limited tickets.

Transportation will be provided.

Tuesday, March 21 • 5PM
Room 150, University Union

Stella by Starlight, work of Sharon Draper, is a campus community book read. Though it is intended for young children, this book is a well-told historical fiction about a segregated southern town and a young girl's bravery.

Stop by the AIC to sign-up and get your free book. Registration starts Wednesday, February 1, 2017. Books are limited.

Saturday, April 8 • 5:30PM-8:30PM
Phoenix Rooms, University Union

The annual International Dinner is the longest running student event at UWGB. It provides an opportunity to learn more about our international community on and around campus.

Join us to enjoy an evening with great international cuisine and performances.

Tickets will be available at UTC.

AIC Meet and Greet

Milwaukee 53206

Rambunctious 2.0

Stella by Starlight

International Dinner

February

Pride Center Fifth Anniversary Open House
Thursday, February 2 • 3PM-6PM
University Union TV Lounge, across from Rustic Range (first floor University Union)

The UWGB Campus is celebrating the Fifth Anniversary of the Pride Center! Cake, beverages, and new and old friends await you. The event is free and open to all UWGB students, faculty, staff, and alumni.

AIC Meet and Greet
Tuesday, February 7 • 12PM-2PM
Room 150, University Union

Welcome new and returning students, staff, and faculty while having the opportunity for everyone to meet the AIC team and services. Snacks will be provided.

Foodways: Authentic to Western
Tuesday, February 7 • 5PM-6PM
Phoenix Room B, University Union

Foodways are the cultural, social, and economic practices relating to the production and consumption of food. Come see and taste how traditional foods have changed and become westernized. Tickets are $2 and can be purchased at the University Ticketing and Information Center while supplies last.

Study Abroad Fair
Wednesday, February 8 • 10AM-2PM & 4PM-6PM
Phoenix Room C, University Union

Visit the Study Abroad Fair to learn about all of the opportunities available at UWGB. There are programs from one week to one year all over the world, so find something that fits YOU! See you at the fair!

Milwaukee 53206: A Community Serves Time
Film and Discussion
Wednesday, February 8 • 5PM
Christie Theatre, University Union

Milwaukee 53206 tells the story of those effected by mass incarceration in America's most incarcerated ZIP code. Through the powerful journeys of Beverly Walker, Dennis Walton and Chad Wilson, one will witness how incarceration has shaped their lives, families, and community. The film examines how decades of poverty, unemployment, and a lack of opportunity has contributed to the crisis of mass incarceration in this community and communities across the nation. There will be a discussion after the film.

Inclusivity Health Fair and Art Show
Thursday, February 9 • 10AM-4PM
Phoenix Rooms, University Union

The Inclusivity Health Fair and Art Show has something for everyone. Learn about health, wellness, reducing stress, and the art of relaxation in an interactive and fun format. The event is free to UWGB campus and public.

Rambunctious 2.0
by Spectrum Dance Company
Friday, February 10 • 5PM
Fox Cities Performing Arts Center

Travel to The Fox Cities Performing Arts Center in Appleton to explore American tradition through artistic movement and inspirational compositions from African-American composers: T.J. Anderson, Wynton Marsalis and Pamela Z. UWGB student tickets are $15 at the University Ticketing and Information Center. Purchase early to secure your seat, as there are limited tickets. Transportation will be provided.

SAFE Ally Training
Monday, February 13
Level 1 • 10AM-12PM
Level 2 • 12:30PM-2PM
World Unity B, University Union

Training and discussion for individuals who want to learn more about LGBTQ+ websites and resources in order to support and advocate for individuals who are gender and sexual minorities. Participants must complete SAFE Ally Level 1 to complete Level 2. To RSVP, please contact Stacie Christian at christis@uwgb.edu.

Intergenerational Series:
Bridging the Gap Between Young and Old
Panel Presentation
Thursday, February 16 • 11AM-12:30PM
1965 Room, University Union

Do you think you understand how the "older generation" ticks? Think again. A panel of retirees will share their perspectives on family, money, lifelong learning, and whatever you care to ask them. You'll definitely laugh, you'll probably be surprised, and you may even be inspired to rethink your own life.

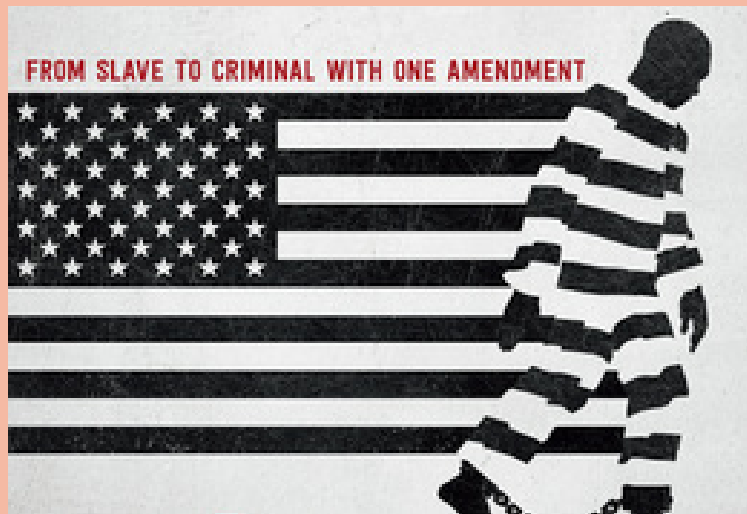

Inclusive Excellence Event:
All Campus Roundtable on Student Success and Campus Climate
Monday, February 20 • 12PM-1PM
Phoenix Rooms A & B, University Union

Come make a difference for what matters to you on campus and contribute in helping UWGB move forward toward being inclusive of students and employees in our diverse community. This is a chance to share your thoughts and listen to what others want to see at UWGB. Your participation generates impactful change through the Chancellor's Advisory Committee for Inclusive Excellence in the classroom, workplace, and all over campus. Refreshments will be provided. Classes are welcome; instructors should RSVP to ensure seating.

Restavek: Indentured Child Servants of Haiti
Tuesday, February 21 • 5PM
Room 103, University Union

Wisconsin musician and Haitian local, Skander Desrosiers, comes to UWGB to discuss a specific group of Haitian children known as restavek. Restavek is a word in Haitian Creole that means "stay with" and is for children who are indentured servants in people's homes. Come and learn about what the Foyer Maurice Sixto School in Carrefour, Haiti is doing to end this modern-day slavery.

13th
Film and Discussion
Wednesday, February 22 • 5PM
Christie Theatre, University Union

13th is a 2016 American documentary by director Ava DuVernay. Centered on race in the United States criminal justice system. The film is titled after the 13th Amendment to the United States Constitution, which outlawed slavery, unless as punishment for a crime. DuVernay's documentary argues that slavery is being effectively perpetuated through mass incarceration. Light refreshments and snacks will be provided. There will be a discussion after the film.

Intergenerational Series:
Bridging the Gap Between Young and Old
Small-Group Discussions
Thursday, February 23 • 11AM-12:30PM
1965 Room, University Union

Join us for this very special annual tradition: an open conversation between students and retirees; discuss life, love, learning, and whatever is on your mind. We move past age-based myths and stereotypes to discover what young and old adults can learn from each other.

LGBTQ+ History Booth
Friday, February 24 • 9AM-3PM
Booth A, University Union

February is LGBTQ+ History Month! Stop by our booth to learn about the LGBTQ+ Right Movement and important figures in LGBTQ+ history.

March

Break the Silence, Crack the Stigma
Tuesday, March 7 • 5:30PM-7PM
Room 103, University Union

Join us for an illuminating activity and discussion about mental illness. With the help of glow sticks, we will learn that no matter how we feel, we are not alone.

Courage, Community and Hope: Stella by Starlight
Tuesday, March 21 • 5PM
Room 150, University Union

Stella by Starlight, work of Sharon Draper, is a campus community book read. Stop by the AIC to sign-up and get your free book. Registration starts Wednesday, February 1, 2017 to get the book. Though it is intended for young children, this book is a well-told historical fiction about a segregated southern town and a young girl's bravery. Books are limited.

Pride Center Roundtable Event
Tuesday, March 21 • 6PM-7:30PM
Manistique Room, University Union

Meet with LGBTQ+ and allies to talk about current LGBTQ+ events. Group discussions are fun and energetic! The event is open to UWGB students, employees, and alumni. Refreshments will be provided.

A Place at The Table: One Nation. Underfed. and Poverty Inc.

Double Feature Film Showings
Monday, March 27 & Wednesday, March 29
5PM & 7PM • Christie Theatre, University Union

Hunger poses serious economic, social, and cultural implications for our nation, and it could be solved once and for all. There will be four movie showings in Christie Theatre over the course of two days.

Pride Center Potluck and Game Night
Thursday, March 30 • 5PM-7:30PM
Events Room, Kress Events Center

Come play games and share food with other students, employees and community members at no cost! Bringing food and games to share is appreciated, but not required.

April

Clothing and Household "Swap"
Wednesday, April 5 • 9AM-4PM
Phoenix Rooms B & C, University Union

Students and employees can come pick out what they would like to use from a large collection of clothing, household items, books/videos, sporting goods and decorations. Donations of clean, working, and functional items are being accepted until 9AM on April 5. If possible, bring donations on "Donation Day" on April 4, from 10AM-4:30PM during the "Swap" set-up time. For more information on the acceptance of donations, call the Pride Center at 920-465-2167. The event is free: no need to donate, just come select what you can use!

SAFE Ally Training
Friday, April 7
Level 1 • 10AM-12PM
Level 2 • 12:30PM-2PM
World Unity B, University Union

Training and discussion for individuals who want to learn more about LGBTQ+ websites and resources in order to support and advocate for individuals who are gender and sexual minorities. Participants must complete SAFE Ally Level 1 to complete Level 2. To RSVP, please contact Stacie Christian at christis@uwgb.edu.

International Dinner
Saturday, April 8 • 5:30PM-8:30PM
Phoenix Rooms, University Union

Enjoy an evening with great international cuisine and performances. The annual International Dinner is the longest running student event at UWGB. It provides an opportunity to learn more about our international community at UWGB. Tickets available at UTIC.

Day of Silence
Friday, April 21 • 9AM-3PM
Phoenix Club Booth A, University Union

Join students around the world who participate each year on the Day of Silence. Receive buttons and information, while spending a day in silence listening to the voices that aren't always heard.

LGBTQ+ Awareness Conference
Saturday, April 22 • 12PM-4PM
World Unity Rooms A & B
Room 103, University Union

Join the Sexuality and Gender Alliance for a day filled with workshops and programs! Learn about the LGBTQ+ Community, how to be an ally, LGBTQ+ advocacy, and more.

Lavender Graduation and Leadership Awards
Thursday, April 27 • 6PM-8PM
Phoenix Rooms B & C, University Union

The Pride Center provides a relaxing and memorable evening for Pride Center students and allies, with a focus on graduating seniors and their families/guests while enjoying food, music, and friendship. The Pride Center Lavender Leadership Awards and lavender chords to graduating seniors are two events of this evening. This event is free, but RSVPs are needed by April 14, by contacting Stacie Christian at christis@uwgb.edu.

May

Cinco de Mayo Celebration
Monday, May 1-Friday, May 5
University Union & AIC

Join the members of Organization Latino Americanas as they commemorate the Mexican Army's victory over French forces at the Battle of Puebla on May 5, 1862. Visit www.uwgb.edu/aic for a listing of the events taking place to celebrate this day.

Diversity Discovery Free Day
Saturday, May 6 • 9AM-5PM
The Building for Kids Children's Museum
Appleton, WI

Bring your family and come learn about different cultures and celebrate what makes us unique! UWGB is co-hosting this family-oriented event in partnerships with local diversity non-profits and community organizations. Each organization will have an interactive activity designed to increase awareness and understanding of diversity. Admission is free from 9AM-5PM.