Jean B. Weidner Scholarship Fund Application

Deadline for the upcoming academic year is 4:30 PM on the 2nd Friday of April.
Applications must be received by deadline; late submissions will not be accepted.

The Jean B. Weidner Scholarship is awarded to students who have made significant contributions in their field practicum, their leadership activities, and in the university and their community. Because participation in a field practicum is required for this application, this scholarship is available only to UW Green Bay social work students who will be seniors in the coming fall semester. Applications are evaluated based on submission of materials addressing the criteria below. Applying for this scholarship requires you to complete an online application form. The form will ask for all of the information requested below; the items are replicated here so that applicants have time to reflect on their responses before submitting them. To apply, please click here to access the form; applications will only be accepted through the link provided. You will be asked to provide the following:

Name: _____
Student ID Number: _____
Mailing Address: _____
Permanent Address: _____
Email: _____
Telephone: _____
Date: _____

- 1) Document your academic standing (3.50 minimum GPA) in the Social Work Program.
- 2) Describe significant accomplishments and contributions you made during your junior field placement.
- 3) Discuss your professional leadership activities in the program and/or community over the past three years.
- 4) Explain why you believe these accomplishments should result in your being awarded this scholarship.

Questions about the scholarship can be directed to the Social Work Program (socialwork@uwgb.edu or 920-465-2049).
