

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

UNIVERSITY STUDENT AMBASSADOR, 2021-22

POSITION DESCRIPTION

Forty students serve as University Student Ambassadors each year. The position is to provide support in university outreach efforts and to work with prospective and newly enrolled students as well as their families. Through the New Student Programs, Ambassadors work with both first-year and transfer students during GB Orientation and GB Welcome. Through Admissions the Ambassadors give campus tours and work Large Visit Event Days (Admitted Student Days, Campus Preview Days, Open Houses, etc.). General duties also include serving on panels, corresponding with students, serving as hosts and representatives at official university functions which may be on or off campus.

The position held by an Ambassador is very important, for students, families, and community guests who visit and interact with our Ambassadors form an impression about UW-Green Bay. The position also enables an Ambassador to be a role model, as an Ambassador is one of the first students, that first-year students interact with during New Student Programs.

Successful applicants should be confident, enthusiastic, positive, knowledgeable about the campus and involved on campus. We are looking for students who have excellent interpersonal and communication skills as well as good judgement. Students who are selected to be an Ambassador agree to uphold the university policies and regulations, accept assignments as directed by staff and student directors, and present a professional appearance at all functions.

All Ambassadors will participate in New Student Programs – GB Welcome, conduct campus tours and work Commencement. Fridays are reserved for Large Visit Event Days. About half of the Ambassadors will assist with New Student Programs – GB Orientation in June.

QUALIFICATIONS

1. Students must have completed a minimum of one semester at UW-Green Bay while achieving a 2.5 Grade Point Average (GPA) or higher at time of application.
2. Students who have more than one semester at UW-Green Bay and do not qualify for a cumulative 2.5 GPA must have a combined 2.5 GPA for the two semesters preceding the time of application.
3. To continue employment as a University Student Ambassador all students must maintain a cumulative 2.5 GPA.

NOTE: All employment offers are contingent upon a satisfactory criminal background check.
