“[I] cannot recommend studying abroad enough! It is something that you will remember for the rest of your life!”
—Olivia, NSE California and France
Semester programs are an excellent way to see a country for a long period of time. Students typically participate for a semester or academic year. UW-Green Bay offers two types of semester programs: exchange programs and direct enrollment programs. Please see reverse side for program options.

UW-Green Bay Exchange Programs
Exchange programs are created on the basis of exchanging students with a partner university. Students pay UW-Green Bay tuition and are able to attend another university for a semester or academic year.

- Denmark
- Chile
- France (Besançon or Marseille)
- Germany (Hessen area)
- Germany (Kassel)
- Japan (Tokyo)
- Mexico
- Nethelands
- Spain (Madrid)

UW-Green Bay Direct Enrollment Programs
Direct enrollment programs are completely administered by UW-Green Bay and are created by a partnership between UW-Green Bay and a host university. Students pay host university tuition and attend for a semester or academic year.

- Japan (Osaka)
- New Zealand
- Spain (Bilbao)
- Scotland (Aberdeen)
- Scotland (Glasgow)
- Scotland (Stirling)
- Mexico Student Teaching
- International Student Teaching
- London (UK) Internship

Interim Programs (Summer/Winter)
Interim programs are intensive study experiences administered through our partner institutions during interim periods such as summer or winter break.

Options include a language course, students are placed at an appropriate level from beginner to advanced. (Except Scotland and France)

- France (Multiple locations Summer School) - 5 credits, approximately 3 weeks
- Germany (Hessen International Summer University - ISU) - 6 locations, 6 credit programs, approximately 4 weeks
- Germany (Hessen International Winter University - IWU) - 3 locations, 6 credit programs, approximately 3 1/2 weeks
- Netherlands ( Hague Summer School) - 4 credits, approximately 4 weeks
- Japan (Tokyo or Osaka Summer School) - 3 credits, approximately 3 weeks
- Scotland (Glasgow International Summer School – ISS) - Multi-level credit options, average 3 credits / 6 weeks
- Scotland (Stirling International Summer School – ISS) - 4-12 credit programs, 4 or 8 week option, internships
- Spain (Bilbao) - 4-7 credits, approximately 4 weeks, Spanish or English

Faculty-led Travel Courses
Travel courses are short term programs that are taught and led by a UW-Green Bay faculty member or staff member. Programs are typically 2 to 4 weeks in duration, department specific, and vary from year to year. These courses occur during the winter, summer, and spring breaks. Students from all majors are welcome to apply for most programs. Programs can also fulfill General Education requirements. Check website for current offerings.

Below are examples of past travel courses:
- Argentina (Spanish)
- Brazil (Portuguese)
- Chile (Environmental Science & Sustainability)
- Costa Rica (Global Studies or Urban & Regional Studies)
- Germany & Poland (Human Biology)
- Italy (Arts & Visual Design, Music, or Humanistic Studies)
- England (English)
- Mexico (Business, Education, or Social Work)
- Panama (Biology & Environmental Science)
- Slovakia (Human Development or WOG)
- South Africa – Cape Town & Port Elizabeth (Democracy & Justice Studies on Human Development)
