

Short Training. Powerful Impact.

Flexible, Foundational Law Enforcement Training

Whether you are assigning training for your team or seeking to strengthen your own skills, this National Clearinghouse on Abuse in Later Life (NCALL) training provides a strong, research-based foundation to improve safety, support victims, and enhance investigation outcomes.

Elder Abuse Investigations

This free, 10-module, at-your-own-pace online training is easy to complete in small pieces, and includes:

- Forms and dynamics of elder abuse
- Tips and strategies for working with older victims
- Cognition and capacity issues
- Collaboration
- Documenting potential cases of abuse

Online Registration

Online registration is available on the NCALL website. Scan QR code or go to:
elderabuseforlawenforcement.com

Login

Go to 'my courses' and 'elder abuse investigation courses'.

Group 1 (Basic)

Great for first responders. This training provides a strong foundation on Abuse in Later Life.

Time Commitment

This online training takes about 3 hours to complete--done at your own pace.

Image generated with Google Gemini

Building Knowledge. Enhancing Safety. Protecting Older Adults

Additional introductory and advanced training options are available on the Wisconsin Elder Justice Coalition website.

SCAN ME! >>

920-465-2469
www.uwgb.edu/elder-justice-coalition/elderjustice@uwgb.edu