VI. Reports

a. President – Riley: Tanisha, Karime, Lucas, and I will be at UW-Madison this Wednesday for lobbying day. As you all know, we are currently in election month. Just a reminder that the election rules don't allow people to campaign in the SGA suites. I am planning to go to either the Manitowoc or Sheboygan SGA meeting sometime next month; if anyone would like to go with me, please let me know. The Academic Affairs position just opened.

c. Vice President – Tanisha: I have been working on social media with Karime. A lot of people were questioning on getting SGA shirts, if you have any ideas, feel free to come up to me and let me know! Please do your exec check-ins.

d. Speaker of the Senate – Lucas: There hasn't been too much that has happened this week. I will be going to Krash the Kress on Thursday. Thank you, Senators, for doing your office hours!

e. University President – Karime:

d. RHAA – Kaylee: Our bingo event went well!

e. Advisors –

Adam: Pass the Gavel on May 1st. Krash the Kress is happening this Thursday, make sure you come! Chance to win $10,000 if you come the entire time to Krash the Kress.

VIII Exec Committee Reports:

- Academic Affairs -
- Arts and Performance – Kayla:
- Environmental Affairs – Derek: Nothings really going on and our committee meeting has been postponed because there’s nothing new going on.
- Equity and Diversity – Tanisha: We had our committee meeting last week...
- Health and Safety -
- Intergovernmental Affairs – Riley: We had our committee meeting 8 AM sharp on Wednesday.
- Recreation and Athletics – Riley S.: A couple updates, the Krash the Kress is this Thursday. There is a home game every week for both men’s and women’s.

- Union and Dining -
- SUFAC – Nathan: I am blessed to have popped up on Riley’s report, getting a member on SUFAC is very difficult.

VIII Announcements –

- Devan: If you live off campus and you live in the city of Green Bay, please vote tomorrow.
