Are you AWARE how much writing you do in college?

AWARE is a two-week residential program for students entering 12th grade from the Greater Green Bay Area School Districts. AWARE will introduce students to the UWGB Cofrin Library, writing center, and a host of online writing and research tools.

Students will live on campus Monday through Friday for two weeks and return home on the weekend in between.

AWARE will teach students to identify topics, develop thesis, collect evidence using library and internet documenting sources, in addition to allowing students to practice oratory skills through the presentation of their research to a panel of judges. Workshop activities are designed to develop and enhance writing proficiency and to introduce research supported writing.

Enhance your college readiness through AWARE.

( Academic Writing and Research Experience)

In addition to becoming college and career ready, free evening activities will be provided. Evening activities include Bay Beach, De Pere Cinema, Bowling, Bay Park Mall, etc.
